WINDOWS . . .

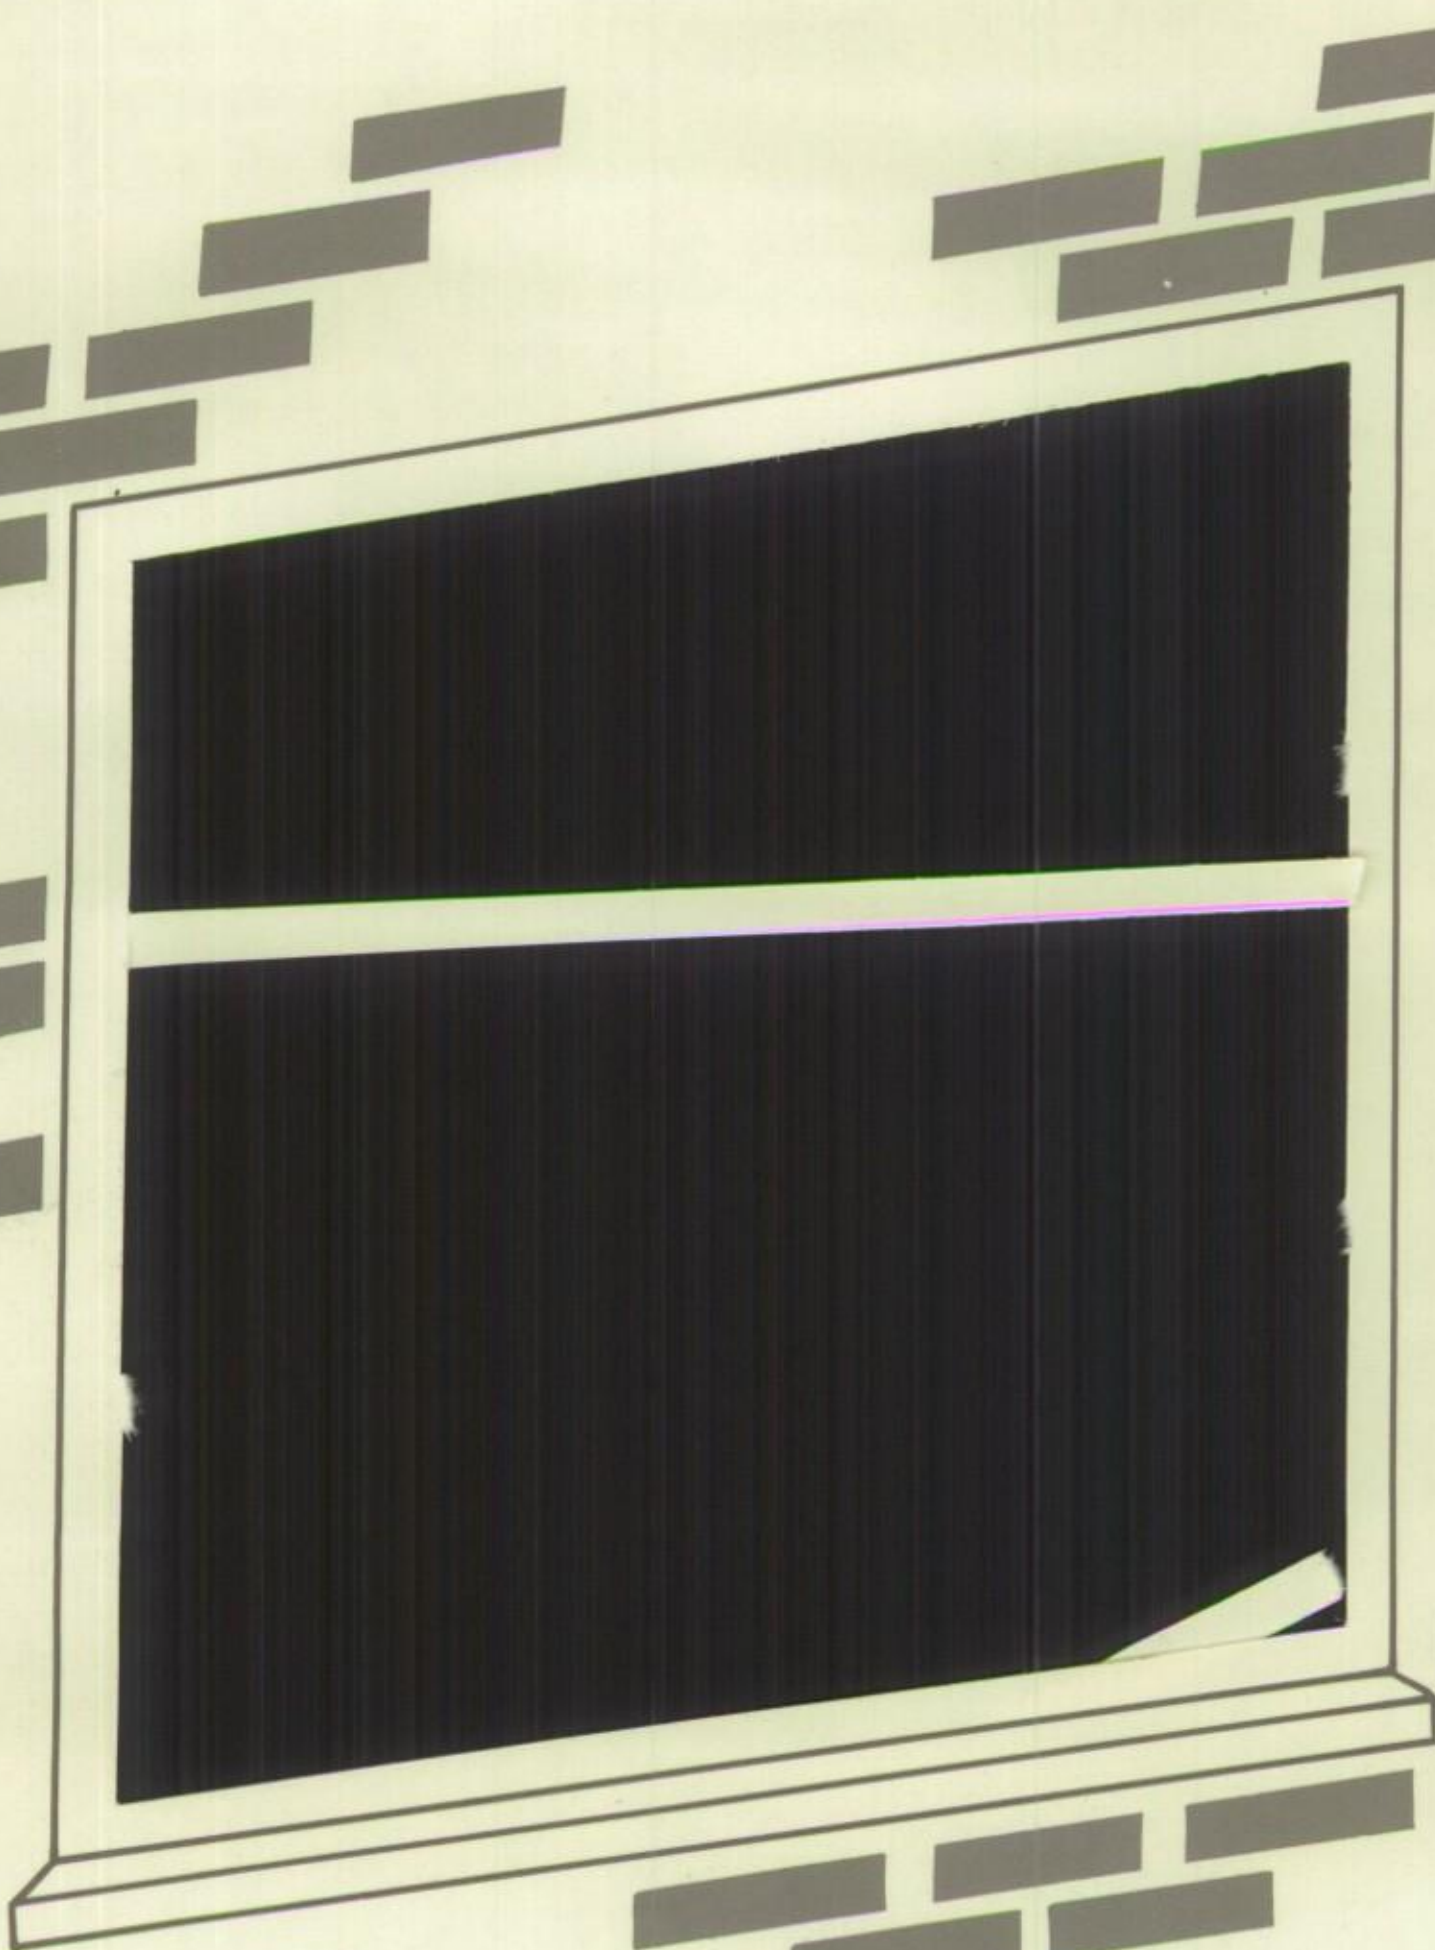

When glancing into the windows at Eastmoor, a world of knowledge meets the eye. Whether it is the intrigue of a mathematical problem or the adventure of the Civil War, most students find their classroom experience an enjoyable but challenging part of their school life.

Here Mr. Julian is presenting one aspect of this world of knowledge to his attentive students.

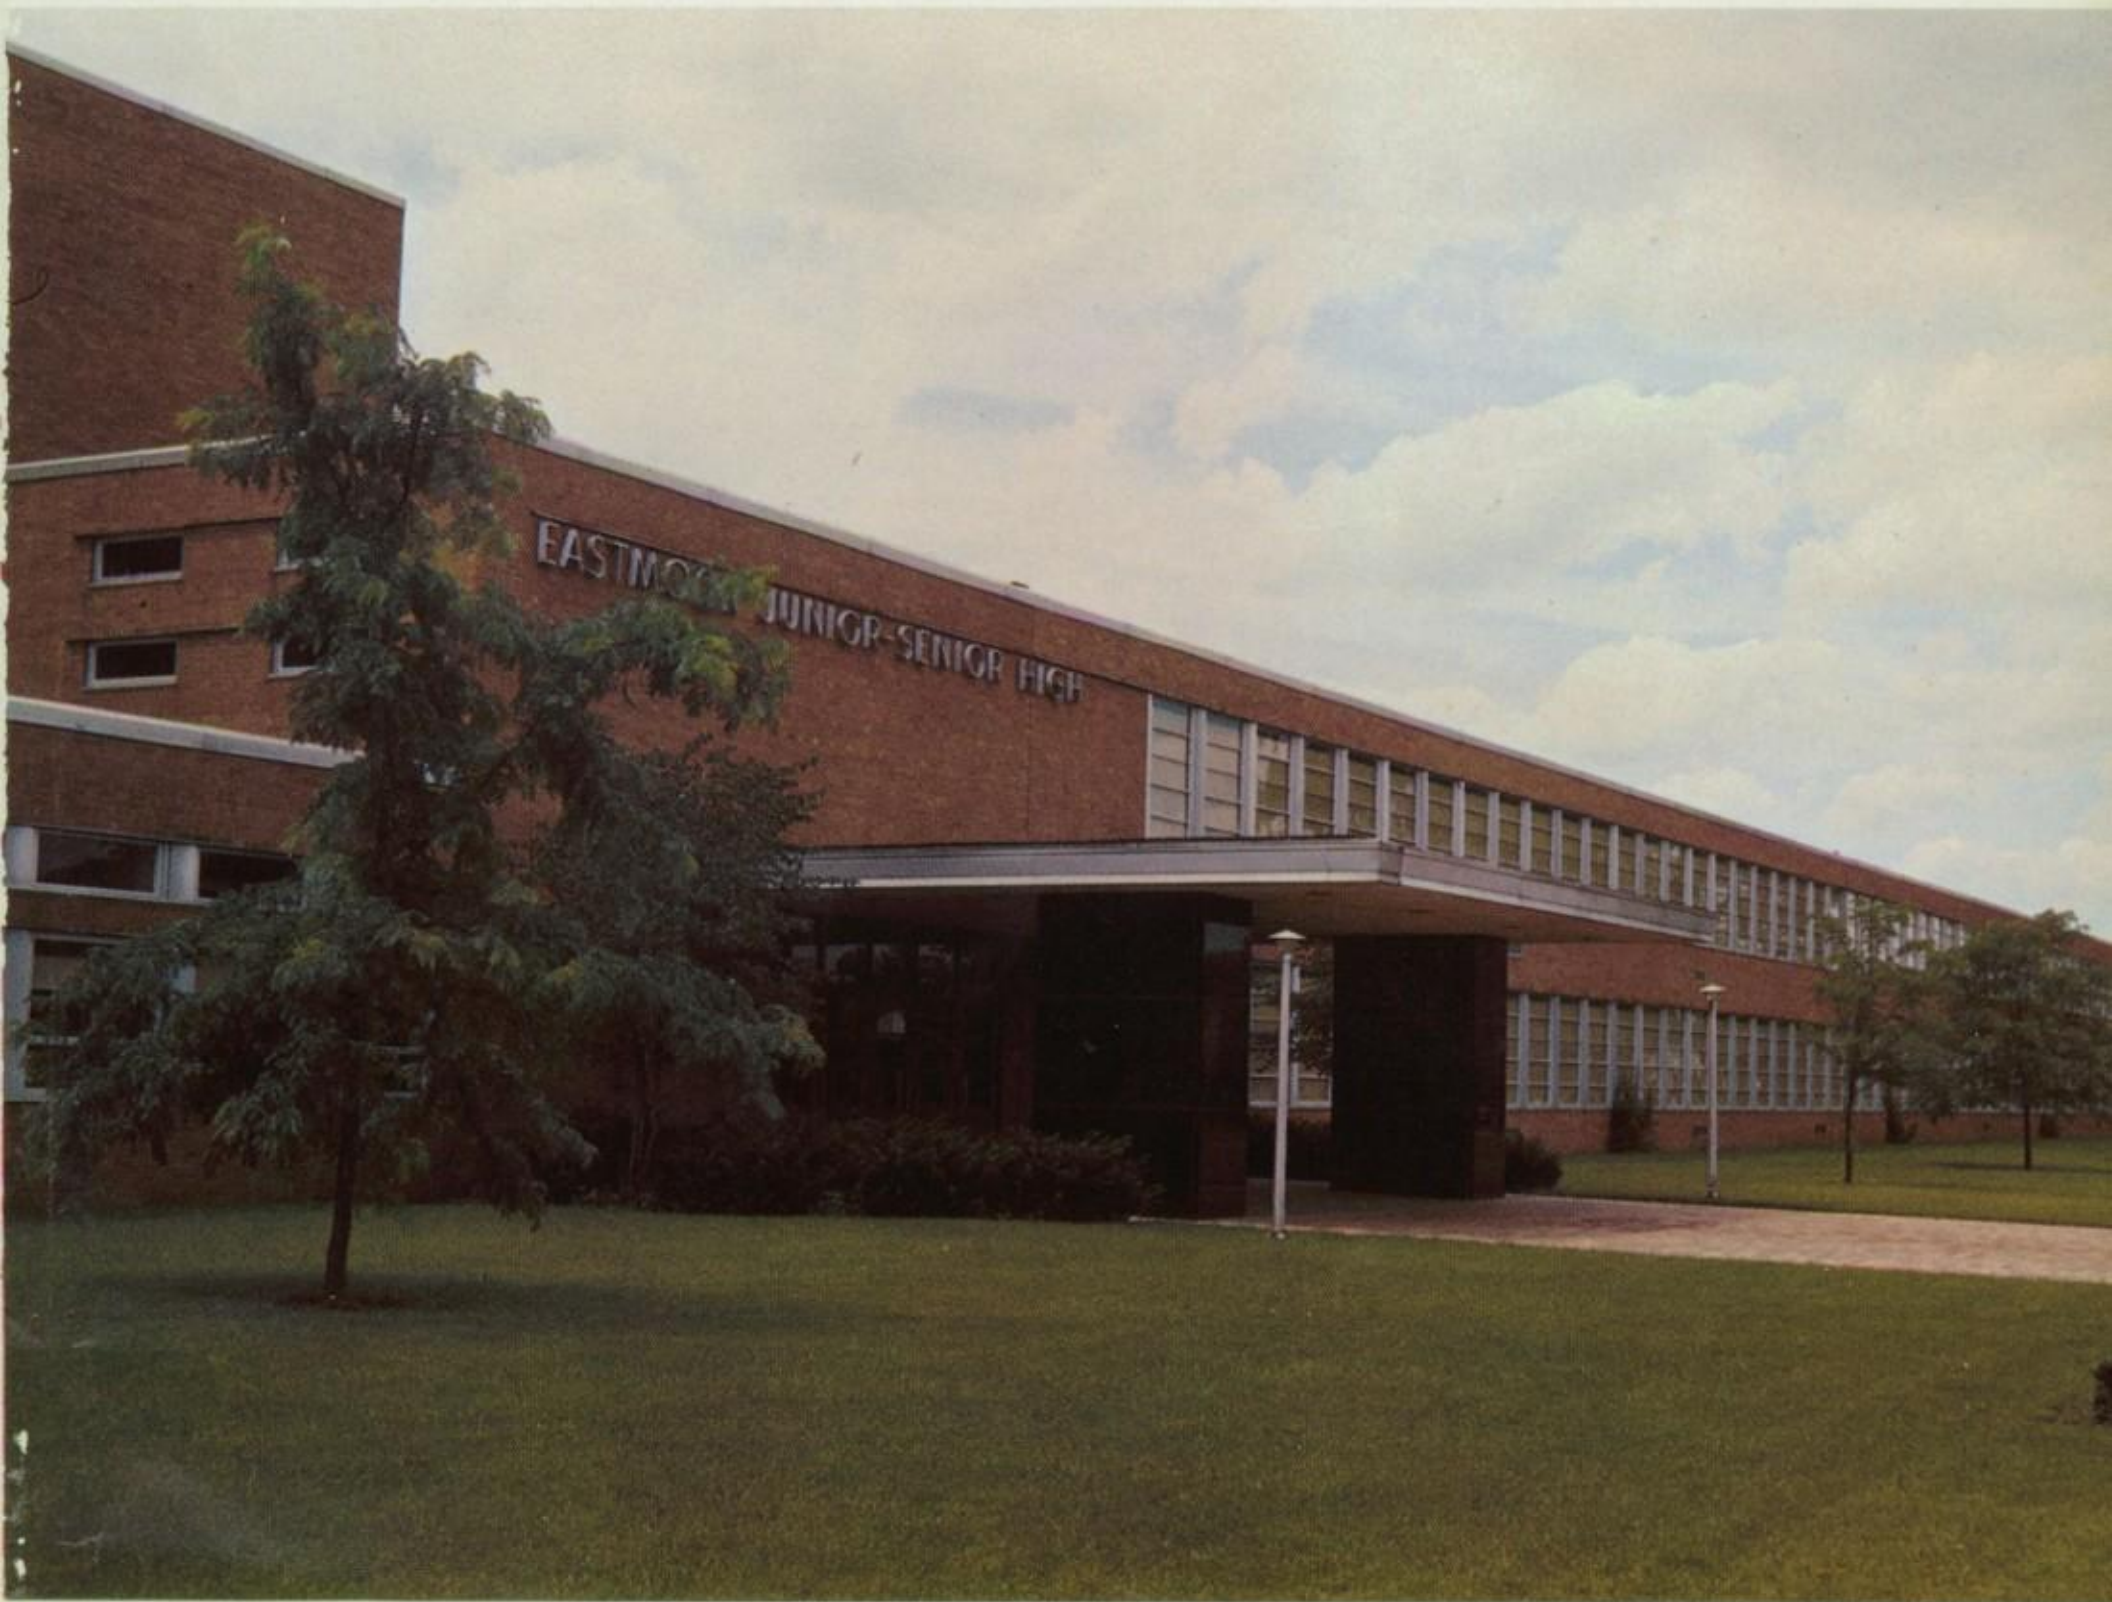

the eyes of our school . . .

EASTMOOR HIGH SCHOOL

Through These Windows

As we, the Seniors of the Graduating Class of 1962, glance through the windows of Eastmoor into the future, we must at the same time remember the pleasant years we have spent here. For Eastmoor has been more than just a school to us—it has become a way of life. It has been a source of knowledge and truth and endless activities and clubs that enriched our personalities and taught us how to work and share with others. It has not all been work; the fun and excitement of the pep-rallies, plays, and athletic contests have made our high school years an experience that we shall always cherish. Although it is with deepest regrets that we say goodbye to Eastmoor, we must look ahead with eagerness and confidence. For we are secure in the knowledge that here at Eastmoor we have been well prepared to go out into the world as useful, productive citizens. We only hope that Eastmoor's windows will always mirror its life, spirit, and activity.

Our Leaders

MR. MAYER

Mr. T. H. Mayer, principal at Eastmoor, is known for his ideas and practices in advanced educational methods. Because of his interest and knowledge in this field, Eastmoor is known for its outstanding curriculum and high student accomplishment.

MR. GOSS

Mr. Norval Goss, vice-principal, devotes himself to the encouragement of good learning and helps keep the school organization running smoothly.

You Meet These People in the Office

Miss Victoria Miller, co-ordinator of student activities, is an important part of the school life at Eastmoor. Miss Miller received a B.S. degree in education from Ohio State University. Among her many duties, she is the senior class advisor.

The office is always running smoothly, thanks to secretaries Mrs. Pauline Whitaker and Mrs. June Lamp. Their kindness and concern for everyone is appreciated by all students.

Mr. Donald Murphy is a busy man. In addition to serving as attendance officer, he teaches general science, conducts Science Seminar, and advises the Science Club. Mr. Murphy's degrees include a B.S. from Wilmington College and a M.S. from Ohio State University.

Counselors

Mr. Gerald Fry holds a B.S. degree in education. He serves as a student counselor, teaches geography, and is active in the athletic department.

One of our student counselors is Miss Barbara Belk. Besides her guidance work, Miss Belk has several English classes. She received a B.A. degree from Capital University.

Mrs. Jean C. Mahoney is a full-time counselor at Eastmoor. With all her many duties, she is the advisor for the Senior Y-Teen Club. She has a B.S. and M.A. from Ohio State University.

School nurse, Edna Kies, helps students who are sick and need her aid.

Merrill Bagley, Gale Hysell, and Harold Brake are three of the school bus drivers who transport Eastmoor students to and from school.

They Make Eastmoor a Better School

Working hard to keep our school neat are Bobby Boyd, janitor; Robert Mumma, head custodian; Mrs. Mullens, matron; and Francis Collins, janitor.

Cafeteria workers Helen Heizer, Mary Jay, Lola Adams, Margaurite Coy, Frances Held, June Weatherington, Doris Reynolds, and Peg Pflaum plan, cook, and serve school lunches.

The new Board of Education Building is located at 270 East State Street.

The members of the Board meet in this large board room to discuss and decide on plans for better education.

Eastmoor Is Proud to Be a Part of the Growing Columbus School System

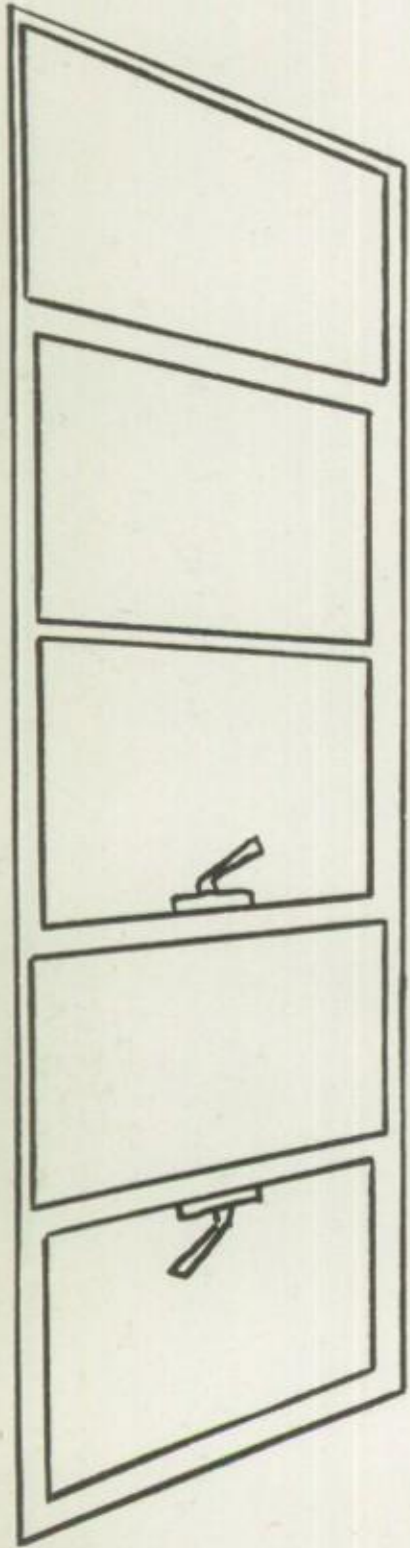

It is the duty of the Board of Education to establish and put into effect the policy and practice of the Columbus Public Schools. The seven members of the Board are elected to four-year terms, during which they serve without pay. The Board now administers to the school system from the new and beautiful ultra-modern Board of Education Building located at 270 East State Street.

Inside, there are modern offices where education progresses.

Dr. Harold Eibling,
Superintendent of Public Schools

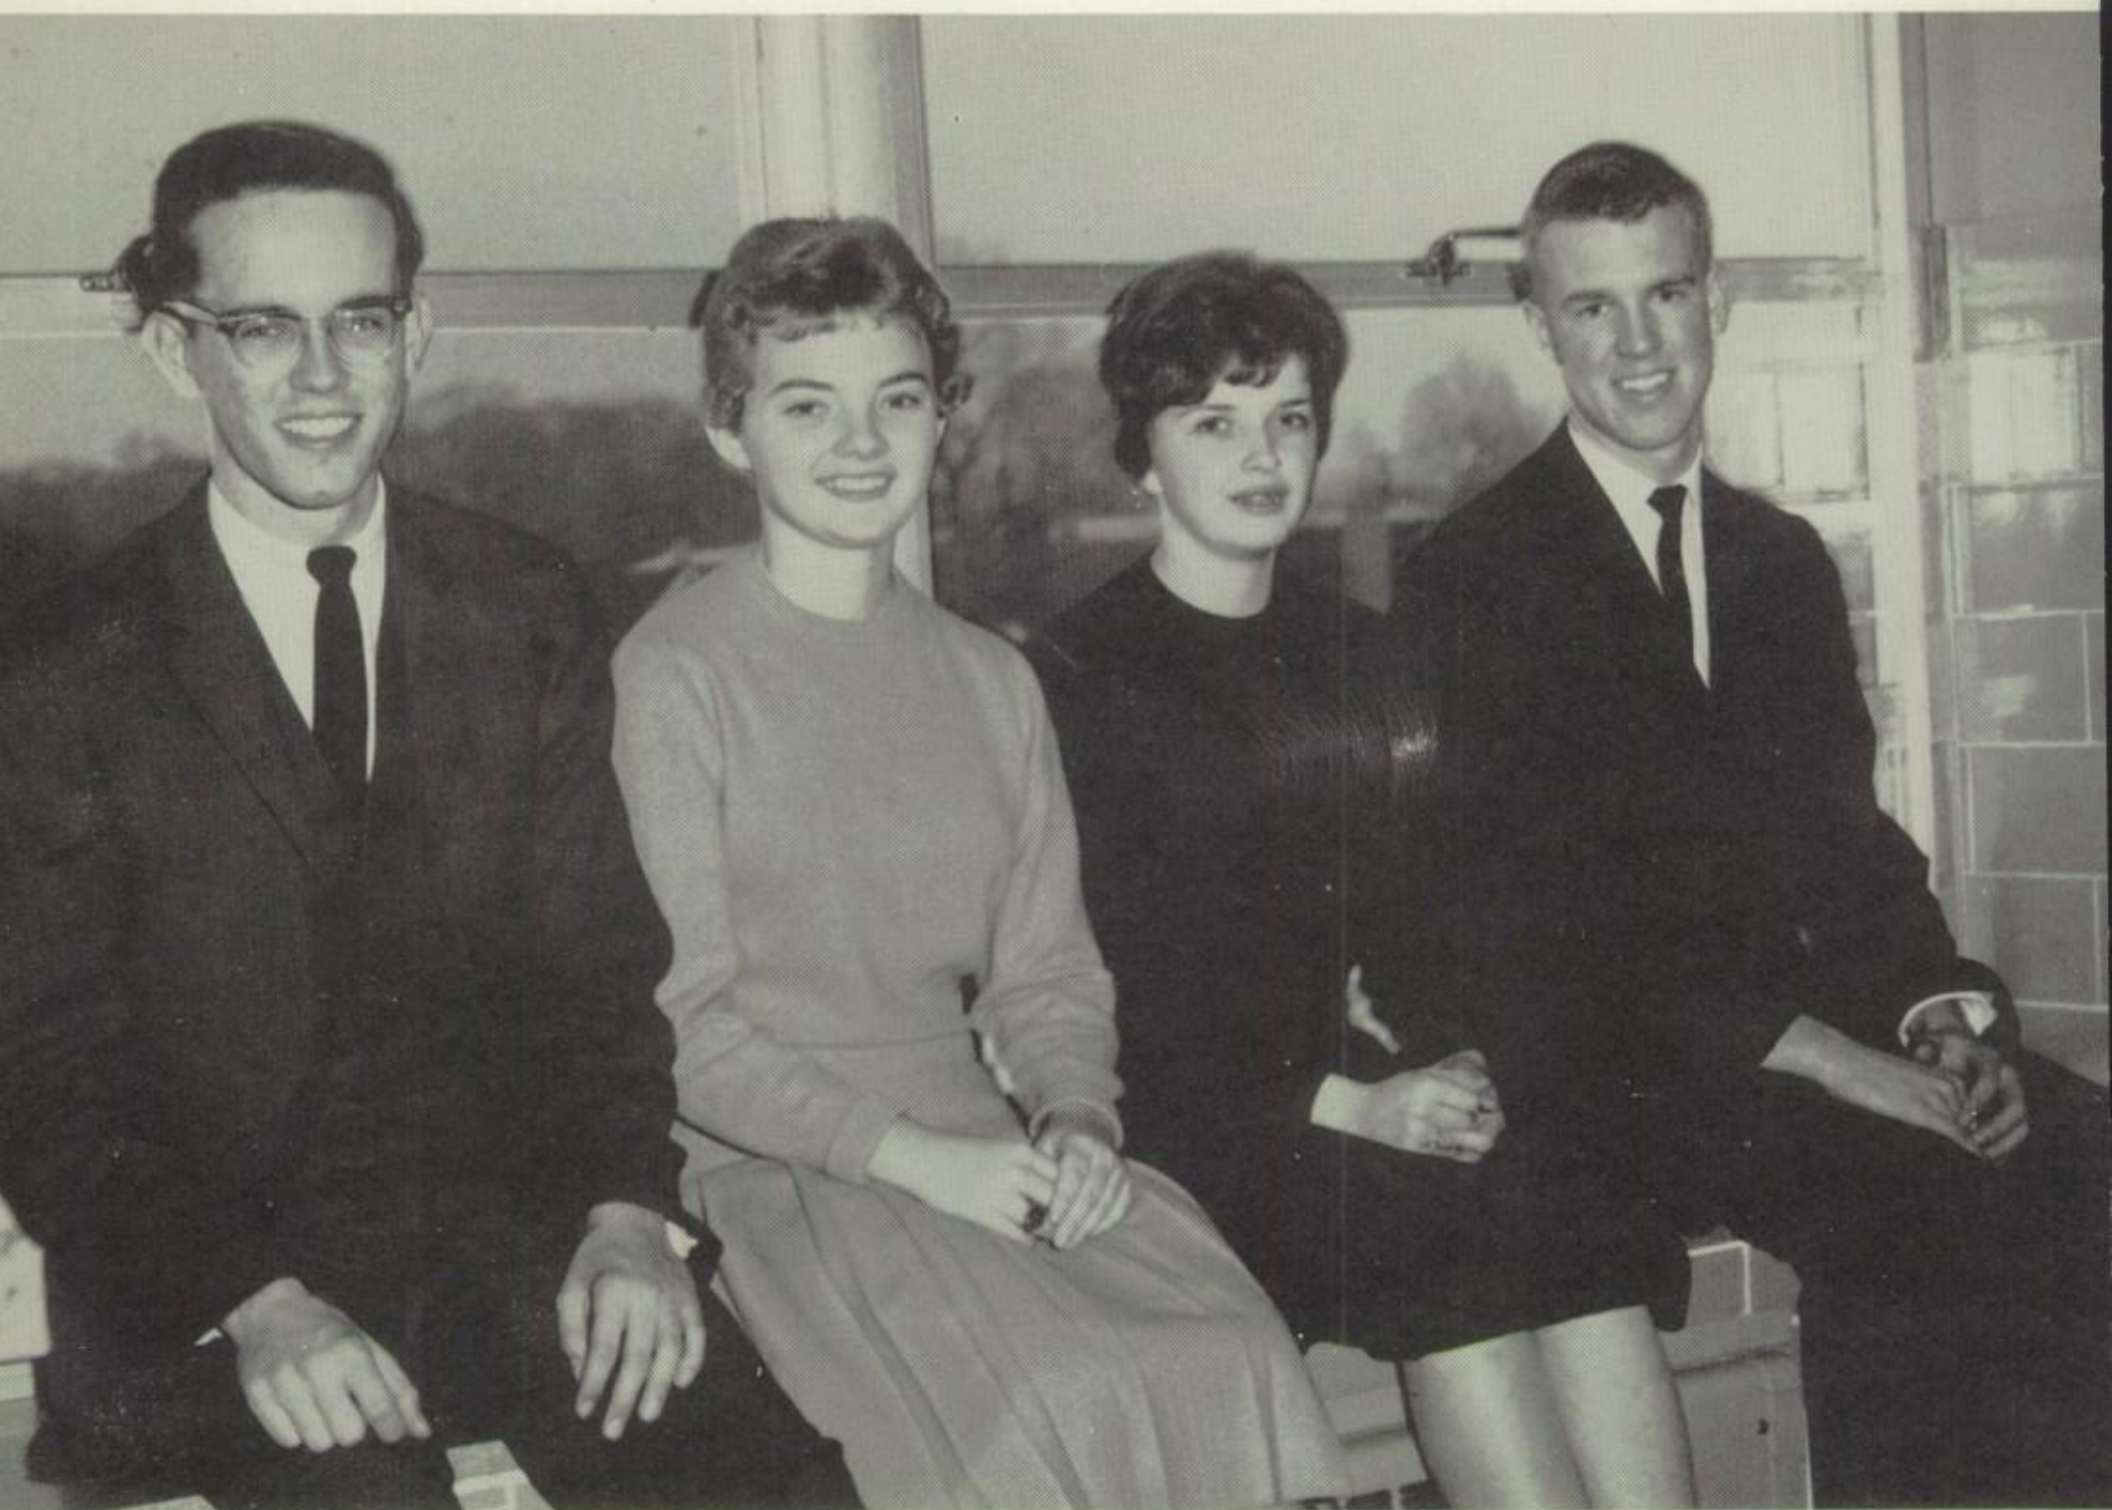

Members of the Columbus Board of Education include Mr. Homer Trantham, Mr. Edward N. Sloan, Mr. Frank S. Williams, Dr. Watson H. Walker, Mr. Paul R. Langdon, Mr. Daniel W. DeHayes, and Mrs. Ralph H. Davidson.

The Betty Crocker Future Homemaker award was won for Eastmoor by Carol Noble.

Those placing in the top ninety-ninth percentile for the nation in the National Merit Scholarship Contest were Barry Hilton, Ann Whetstone, and Steve Stellman.

Seniors Bring Honor to Eastmoor

Barry Hilton, left, president of the senior class, and Bob Lewis, right, treasurer of the senior class, represented Eastmoor at Buckeye Boys' State, which met at Ohio University. Eastmoor's representative to Buckeye Girls' State, which met at Capital University, was Janice Moltenberry.

The Quill and Scroll Society

Quill and Scroll is the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. Membership is a distinct honor and is reserved for those outstanding publications staff members who meet the basic requirements established by the Society and its Local Chapters. Candidates for Quill and Scroll membership must have demonstrated fully to the satisfaction of their staff advisor, the board of publications, or the school principal that they merit the award through high scholarship, journalistic achievement and service. They must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

Membership in Quill and Scroll at Eastmoor is based on outstanding work done on the staff of THE SHIELD, the Eastmoor yearbook; on the WARRIORS' SPEAR-IT column in the community newspaper; on the EASTMOOR CHAR-IOT, our occasionally-published school paper; or on the LANCE, our school magazine. The basic requirement for membership is a seven-semester accumulative scholastic average in the upper third of the senior class.

Eastmoor members of Quill and Scroll for 1962 were named at the annual recognition assembly in May. A special award for outstanding service was made to Mike Kohar, staff artist for 1960-62.

National Honor Society

Thirty-five members of the senior class were honored when they were tapped for membership in the Eastmoor Chapter of the National Honor Society at the National Honor Society Assembly on March 20.

Each Eastmoor senior who had a cumulative scholastic average for his first seven semesters of 3.2 was a candidate for membership. In addition to attaining high scholarship, each prospective member had to qualify equally well on the basis of constructive leadership, worthy character, and purposeful service to Eastmoor.

Three of the 1962 members, Barry Hilton, Steve Stellman, and Ann Whetstone, were also finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Tests.

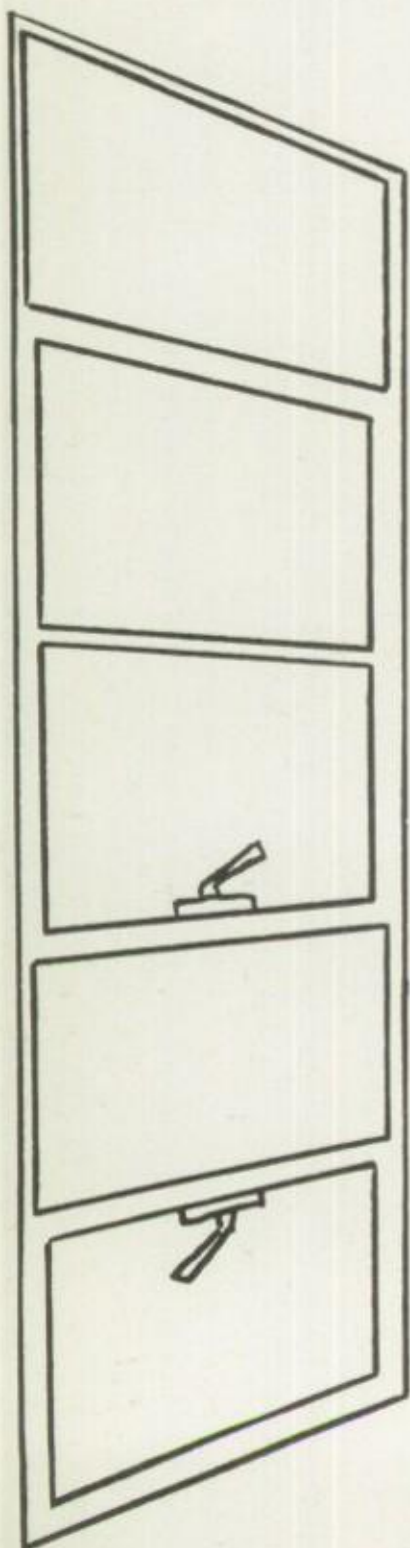

Sue Fahrion was elected to membership in the National Honor Society while a junior at Helena Senior High School, Helena, Montana. She continued as a fully qualified member here at Eastmoor.

Organizations

Seated left to right are Doug Van Horn, judge; Ron Golden, judge; Judi Tuggle, judge; Carole Joseph, chief justice; Bonnie Venook, judge; Terrie Rose, judge; Frank Stavroff, judge. Standing are Mr. Roger Conover, advisor; Jackie Cohen, clerk; Geleen Van Vleet, clerk; Ken Hollister, bailiff.

Under the direction of Mr. Roger Conover and Chief Justice Carole Joseph, the Student Court, consisting of four senior judges, three junior judges, two clerks, and a bailiff, enforce the rules set by the administrative staff and Student Council. It is the duty of Student Court to punish violators and to further understanding of school regulations.

Student Council

The Student Council has contributed much towards the betterment of our school and towards the service of the community. Under the direction of Miss Victoria Miller, the group led by their president Dean Lampros, have willingly given their time for the support of their school.

The main function of the Student Council is to set up standards for students to follow at Eastmoor. This group, representing all classes, has performed many activities.

Among their many projects were collecting canned goods for those less fortunate during the Thanksgiving season, directing the homecoming activities, sponsoring a holiday dance in December and distributing a student handbook.

Student Council officers are Miss Miller, advisor; Janet Gray, treasurer; Jim Makar, sergeant-at-arms; Dean Lampros, president; Selene Bondurant, secretary; Julia Walls, vice-president.

Row one: Sue Collins, Dawn Zsulyovic, Karen Williams, Rita Kahn, Beverly Kaufman, Nancy Reed, Karen Schuss, Marcie Carroll. Row two: David Knight, Ron Stein, Merrilee Beagle, Pricilla Jackson, Pam Flora, Danny Teeter, Sue Findley, Lee Baumgardner, Rita Hoffman, Bobbie Shaw, Joe Fingleman, Herb Braverman. Row three: Gloria Lusignolo, Suzanne Jackson, Andrea Helman, Linda Stuart, Jane Lewis, Marcia Davis, Debbie Geichman, Peg Taylor, Elaine Bush, Connie Rau, Mary Jo Marburger, Fred Schnitzspahn, John Jones, Bob Nacdimen, Tom Brinker, Joe Shover, Mike Andrew, Karl Mills, Phil Paul, Carey Adams, Phil Grossman, Barry Leres, Ron Stuart.

Marla Greenfield, yearbook sales chairman, and Peggy Cullman, ad sales chairman, go over figures for the yearbook.

Sports editors, Ken Ramsey, Bob Lewis, Mike Hansen, and Barbara Williams admire the fine trophies received by Eastmoor athletic teams.

The different section editors, Sharon Sanborn, Virginia Thomas, Janice Moltenberry, Selene Bondurant, and Diane Reid, put all their plans together.

Shield

The Shield co-editors, Janet Gray and Connie Rau, look at last year's yearbook as they decide what changes will be made in the new yearbook.

Staff

Carol Joseph, copy editor, Sarah Welch, photography editor, and Marilyn Renick, art editor, put all of their information together to form a page in the yearbook.

Carol Neeshan, book sales bookkeeper, Lois Boesch, ad sales bookkeeper, and Sharon Tewell, head bookkeeper, work recording book sales for the yearbook.

Eastmoor Organizations

Organizations play an important part in activities at Eastmoor. They provide challenging interests for students and give them experience in working with others. The student has an opportunity to act as an officer or as a club member. The results are that the member cultivates an interest and enters into groups where his interest lies.

Officers of Outdoors Club are: Gene Parrish, treasurer, Pat Hoffman, president, and Angie Richardson, vice-president. Absent when the picture was taken was secretary Betty Mills.

Outdoors Club

Members participate in all outdoor activities. The club members enjoy many afternoons of bicycleriding and hiking with their advisor Mr. Foose.

On this autumn afternoon members took a bicycle hike to Blacklick Woods.

Service Club

Girls who are members of this club act as usherettes and hostesses for concerts, club meetings, and banquets which are given at Eastmoor. Their advisor, Miss Singer, gives them advice on how to make these affairs a success.

Terry Rose, president of the Service Club, shows the proper way to make a place setting.

Chess Club

The purpose of Chess Club is to teach members more about the art of playing chess to enable each member to improve his game.

Mike Bullen is thinking hard about what move to make next, as he plays a lively game of chess with Paul Abbot.

Art Club

Members make poster publicizing plays, concerts, and all athletic events. They also help paint and construct properties for other clubs and organizations within the school.

Mike Kohar and Bill Huffman are standing next to a banner they made for the Freedom Festival.

Virginia Thomas is grading papers as a project to gain points for F.T.A.

F.T.A.

Members of F.T.A. gain valuable experience and information on the career of teaching. They take over classes when teachers are absent and aid teachers by grading papers and tests. At club meetings student teachers from Ohio State and other colleges relate their experiences in the field of teaching.

Officers of F.T.A. are: Bonnie Venook, treasurer, in front; Mary Beth Morris, secretary; Connie Rau, president; and Janet Gray, vice-president.

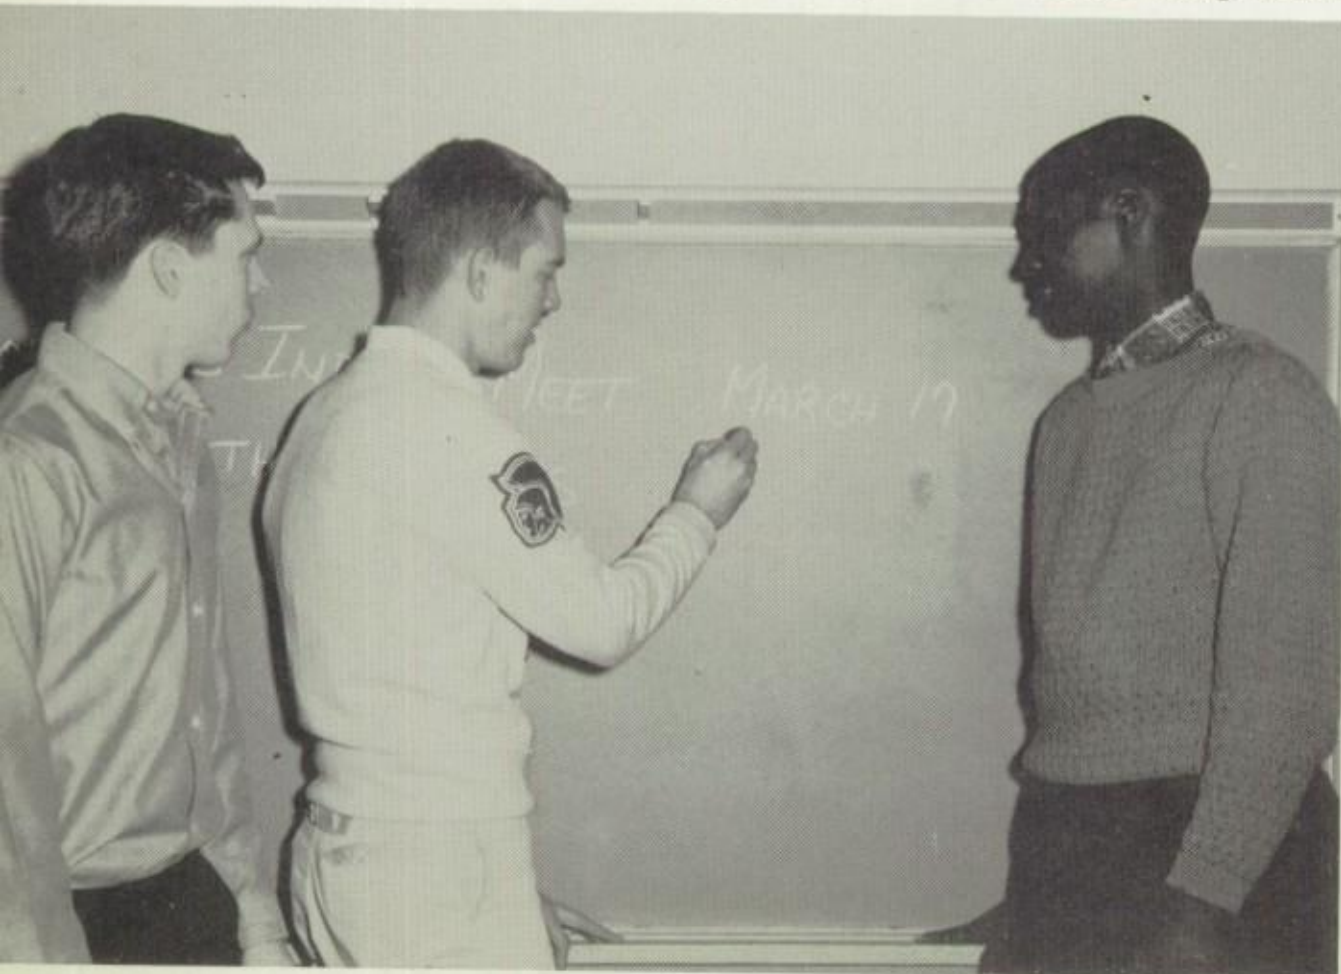

George Magasfalvi, a senior, a native of Hungary, tells of his exciting experiences in a meeting of the International Club.

International Club

Members of the International Club learn about the customs and cultures of other nations. Interesting films are shown of foreign lands, and speakers relate their experiences to club members.

Officers of the Track Club are as follows: Mike Andrew, secretary; Jack Connell, program chairman; Glen Bolon, president; and Ron Boster, vice-president.

Randy Sheets, Bob Lewis, and Jim Doughty review the dates for future track events.

Track Club

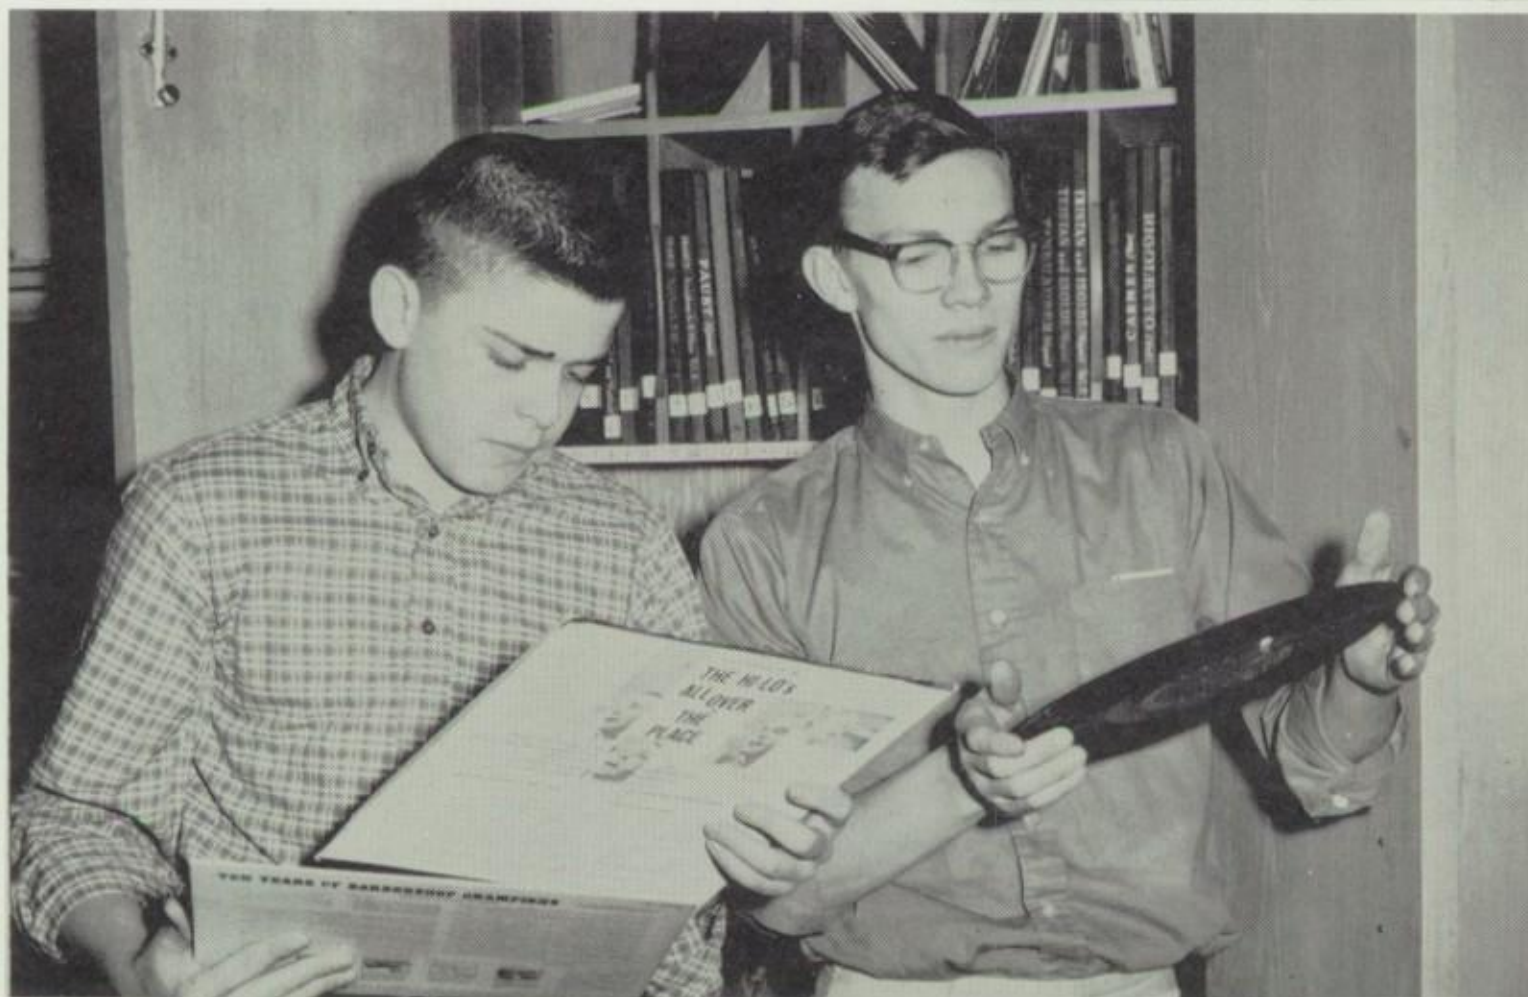

Members of the Track Club make plaques dealing with track records at Eastmoor and other schools. These plaques are displayed in the sports showcase. The group also views films of track events. In the spring members are urged to go out for the track team.

Bel Canto Club

In this club a student has the opportunity to learn by comparing styles of music and going on concert field trips. At noon-time members play the piano and sing to entertain the student body and to improve their own talents.

Barry Hilton, president; Fran Brunner, vice-president; and Anita Milnor, secretary, are looking over music for a future Bel Canto Club meeting.

Mike Bullen and Lencar Biddle are selecting the records they'd like to hear played on the stereo.

Math Club

The Math Club members study areas of mathematics which aren't covered in regular class courses. Students have an opportunity to delve into the fundamentals of the science of mathematics.

Jim Carroll, Judy Clark, and Bob Eisenstein are three of the members of the Math Club.

Audio Visual Club

Members of the Audio Visual Club learn to work and use audio visual equipment. They set up the projectors and run films throughout the school.

Officers of the Audio Visual Club are Mike Gibbon, president; John Smith, vice-president; Bob Feathers, secretary; and Robert Eddy, treasurer. Rodger Maston shows other members of the Audio Visual Club how to work the movie projector.

Camera Club

All phases of photography, color filming, and different speeds of filming, are learned and discussed at Camera Club meetings. Often the group listens to guest speakers from local newspapers and photography studios.

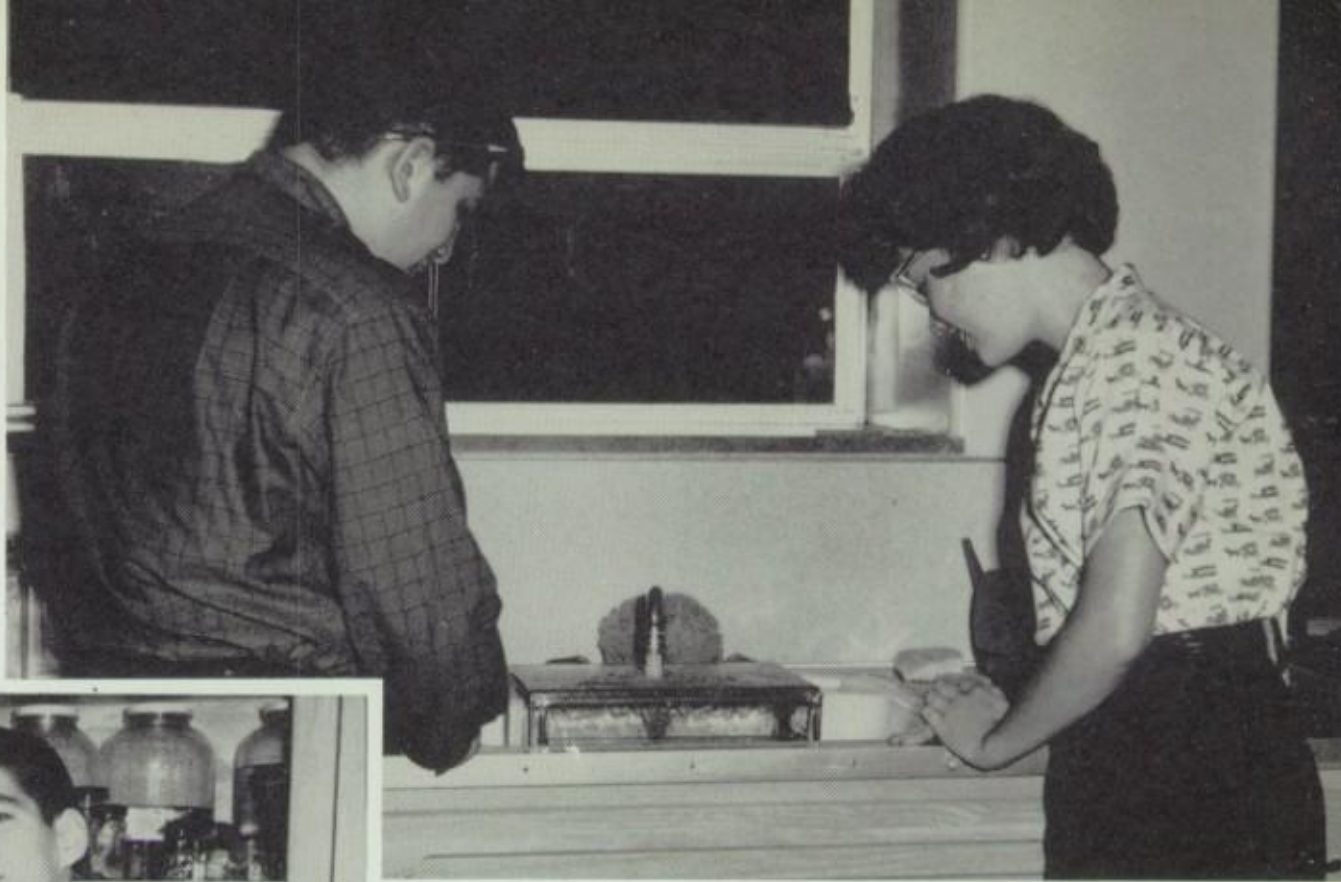

Tim Davis, vice-president; Steve Freedman, president; and Jim Grosshart, treasurer; lead the Camera Club.

Mr. Barr, the Camera Club advisor, is showing slides of one of his vacation trips to members of the club.

Senior Science Club

The members of the Senior Science Club participate in a demonstration at every club meeting. The Science Club promotes interest and provides opportunities for students who are interested in all phases of science and who enjoy exploring the unknown.

Terry Covell and Karen Neiman are looking at algae specimens.

Members of the Senior Science Club work under the direction of Mr. Condit. The officers are: Steve Pinsky, president; Judy Pler, secretary; and David Praver, vice-president.

Boys leading the Junior High members of the science club are David Cowell, president; George Varga, vice-president; and Ronnie Stein, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the Junior Science Club are putting on a demonstration for fellow club members.

Junior Science Club

The Junior Science Club members perform experiments, view films, and listen to speeches about various scientific fields.

Jim Esswein, Kim Smart, George Martz, and David Parrish are looking over the stamps they wish they could add to their collections.

Stamp Club

The purpose of the Stamp Club is to help the members learn more about collecting stamps, condition of stamps, and how to mount them. Each year the members attend the Stamp Convention at the Southern Hotel.

Virginia Schott, Harvey Wasserman, and Charles Becker are looking over the morning newspaper to get information for current events.

George Varga, president; Denny Oppenheimer, vice-president; and Eric Herschberg, secretary-treasurer; check over a club member's collections for possibilities of trading for new stamps.

Current Events Club

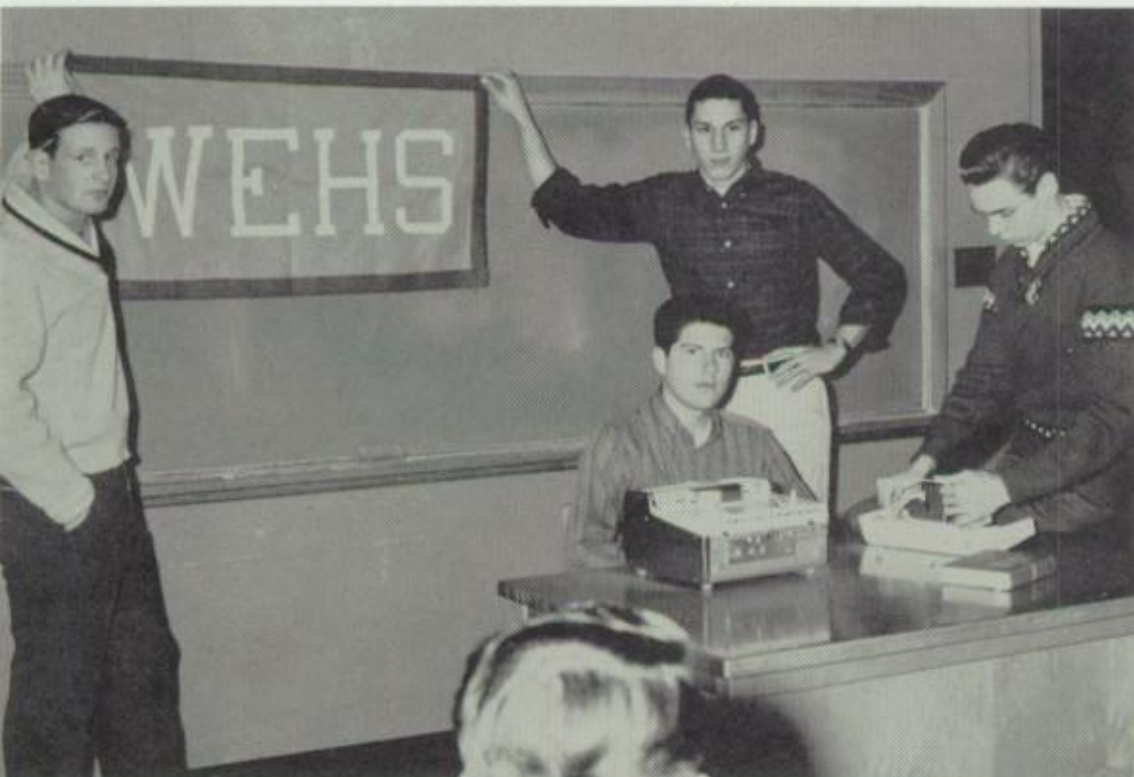

Under the direction of Mr. Julian members of the Current Events Club keep up to date on what is going on in the world. Interesting discussions of common interest are carried on at club meetings.

Radio Broadcasting Club

The Radio Broadcasting Club members tape record football and basketball games. They also record interviews of students on controversial and interesting subjects. Club members take an annual field trip to WBNS-TV to learn more about broadcasting.

Janet Dennison demonstrates how to use the tape recorder for her fellow Radio Broadcasting members.

Steve Craig, Bob Nacdimer, Barry Lerer, and Phil Wilson are beginning a club meeting. Barry is president and Phil is vice-president.

Slide Rule Club

The Slide Rule Club is open only to those students taking trigonometry. At club meetings students work with the slide rule to increase their accuracy.

Larry Gornall, club president, shows Ruth Konkle and Judy Clark how to use the slide rule.

The purpose of the Senior Red Cross is to cooperate with the Red Cross chapter in service projects such as volunteer work in hospitals and children's homes. Some of the Red Cross Club's many activities are making Christmas stockings and scrapbooks for hospitals. Members also help address envelopes for the TB Society.

Junior Red Cross

Students in the eighth or ninth grade who belong to the Junior Red Cross Club are given the opportunity to lend a helping hand to those less fortunate. Members make tray, table, and wall decorations for different institutions.

Janice Eiland and Jackie Taylor, Council Representatives, are discussing the place mats that the girls made.

Senior Hi-Y

Boys in Senior Hi-Y participate in many activities which associate them more closely with the Y.M.C.A. Members compete with other schools in basketball and other sports. The members of the Senior Hi-Y are in charge of the Easter Assembly.

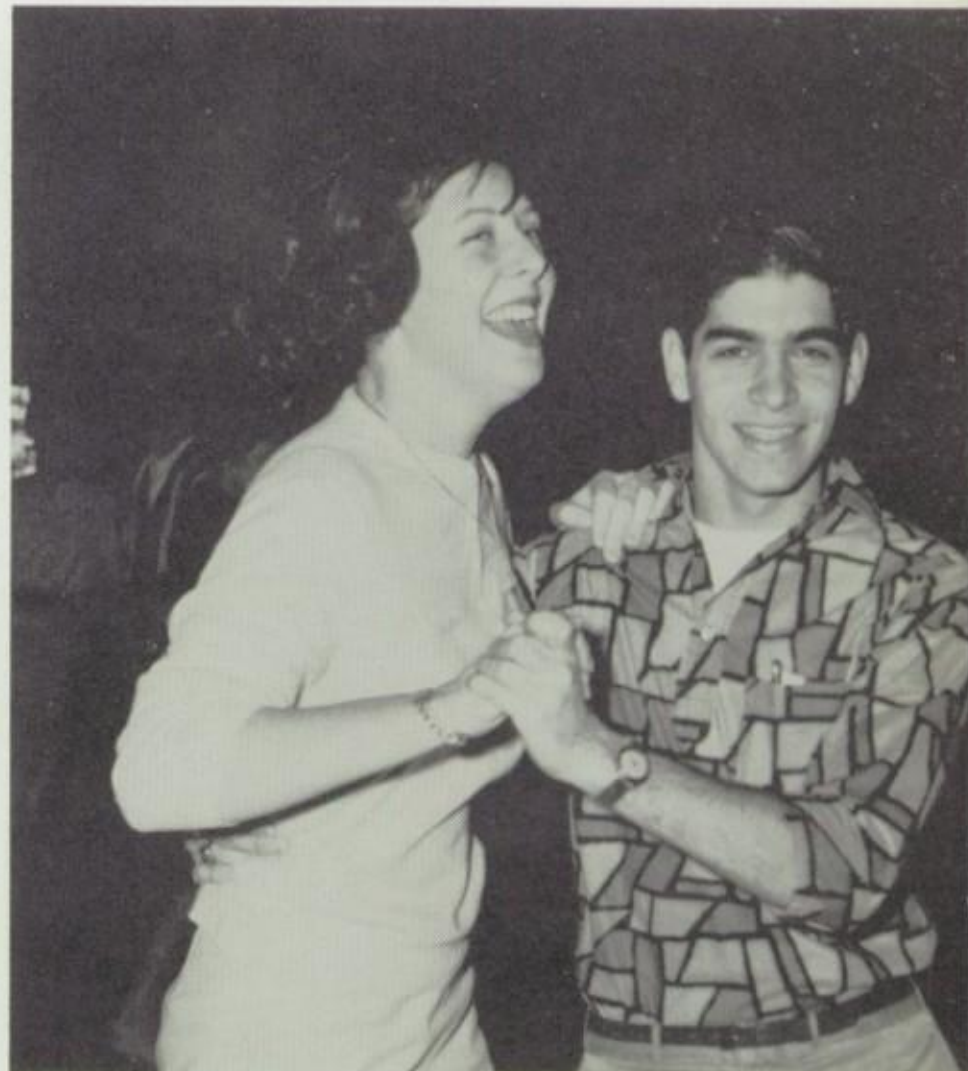

Phil Gordon, sergeant-at-arms; Mike Hansen, secretary; Ken Davis, president; Mike Kristy, vice-president; John Whitten, treasurer; Ron Beaver, chaplain.

Ronald Jackson runs through some plays while a fellow member intently looks on.

Square Dance Club

The members of the Square Dance Club have fun learning new dances and meeting new people. The club members obtain a greater understanding of the different square dances.

Kenny Bless swings his corner lady, Gail Springer.

Partners, Terry Powell and Helen Schultz, bow to each other to begin a new dance.

Dramatics Club

Members of the Dramatics Club are eligible to try out for all dramatic productions presented at Eastmoor and neighborhood elementary schools. They also help publicize plays and sell tickets.

Studying their lines are club members: Carol Andre, Anita Son, Linda Russ, and Mike Bullen.

Sharon Williams, Nancy Polk, and Karon Williams are painting a door for the play, "Harvey."

Speech and Debate Club

Under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Belk, club members participate in many interesting debates with other schools. Debating helps to develop better self expression and self-confidence.

Officers of the Speech and Debate Club are: Jim Carroll, treasurer, Jinny Schott, president, Bonnie Venook, vice-president, and Pete Miller, secretary.

Junior High Baseball Club

Junior high members of this club see films of outstanding baseball games such as the World Series and participate in discussions about the players. The boys are later eligible to try out for the junior high baseball team. Their advisor is Mr. Ferrell.

Officers of the Junior High Baseball Club are: Ron Reid, vice-president, Charles Perkins, treasurer, and Robert Farus, secretary. Absent was president Steve Howell.

Warriors Club

The Warriors Club is the largest organization at Eastmoor. The advisor is Mr. Heintz. Warriors' Club creates more school spirit for all sports. The club sponsored a chartered bus for many away football and basketball games.

John Snodgrass and Gary Yates are showing a film to members of the Junior Baseball Club.

Members of Warriors' Club are waiting to watch a film of outstanding Big Ten basketball games.

Preparing to start a meeting are G.A.A. officers Donna Dailey, president; Sharon Strapp, vice-president; Jackie Taylor, secretary; and Fran Brunner, treasurer.

Mrs. Kenny, G.A.A. advisor, is telling the girls about the future schedule of intramural basketball games.

Junior Y-Teens

Junior Y-Teens strives to develop fellowship among junior high girls. Each year they have a Christmas party at the old folks home, go Christmas caroling, and have a Valentine's Dance.

Kathy Geldis, Junior Y-Teen president, is leading a discussion on plans for a skating party.

Junior Y-Teen officers are Linda Sullivan, secretary; Kendra Hovis, program chairman; Jenny Betts, vice-president; Kathy Geldis, president; Sharon Von Ins, treasurer; and Carol Armstrong, worship chairman.

Senior Y-Teens

The purpose of Senior Y-Teens is to help each member from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades grow and develop as a person. Y-Teens helps each girl to grow in friendship with persons of all nationalities, races, and religions. Y-Teens also enables each girl to grow in the knowledge and love of God. The Senior Y-Teens attend activities such as the "Shipwreck Party" for new girls, the city-wide rally in which Eastmoor won a prize for the best cheer, and the Fall Fantasy at Valley Dale. The Y-Teens also sponsor the Valentine Dance each year.

Leading the Senior Y-Teens are Janice Moltenberry, president; Marcia Davis, vice-president; Renee Barker, secretary; and Sharon Pierce, treasurer.

Mary Jo Marburger, Judy Geichman, Sue Israel, and Kathy Baker, are taking part in the Y-Teen recognition service.

Charleen Upjohn, Selene Bondurant, and Sharon Pierce look like they're enjoying the Senior Y-Teen Shipwreck Party.

Stepping High This Year . . .

Warriorette leadership is under the direction of Darlene Barr, secretary; Renee Barker, vice-president; Carole Joseph, president; Carolee Hemmerly, treasurer.

The Warriorettes

The Warriorettes precision drill team, consisting of thirty members and six alternates, and headed by Miss Jan Gurney, advisor, made their marching debut at the Eastmoor-Hartley football game on Friday, September 22.

The girls not only participate in half-time activities at football games, they also take part at basketball games and march in parades. Outstanding this year were the Veterans' Day Parade and the Capital University Homecoming Parade, in both of which the Warriorettes marched by special invitation.

The new uniforms made headlines and also rated a full-page feature story write-up in the Columbus Dispatch. In addition to presenting the new uniforms to the public, the write-up described how the girls worked to pay for their uniforms and built up their treasury.

Highlighting social events were the annual banquet held in February and the Dog-Patch Drag dance.

New Warriorettes for the coming year were chosen at March tryouts, which were open to all senior high girls who maintain a C average and can be present and punctual for meetings and practice.

Leaving the field after a successful performance are Warriorettes Diane Fagan, Penny Dawson, Annette Katz, Darlene Barr, Caryl Martindale, and Cerie Schwartz.

Each spring the Warriorettes sponsor the Dog-Patch Drag. Dressed in his hillbilly attire is Gary Compton, who seems to be having quite a time!

Senior Band

Eastmoor's concert and marching bands had one of their most successful years.

After presenting the best of halftime shows during our championship football season, the band then started its concert season in December—with the Pop Concert. They were fortunate to give a concert in January with Rafael Mendez, world-famous trumpeter. The band went on to enter the district band contest again this year after receiving the top rating of superior in the state contest for two consecutive years.

Many members of the band entered the district and state solo and ensemble contests and were awarded top ratings. The concert band also participated in several school assemblies and graduation ceremonies.

Eastmoor's Senior Choir was very active this year. On December 3 the choir joined with the band in presenting the annual pop concert. Featured was the finale, "The Voice of Freedom," which was sung by over 200 voices and accompanied by the band. Many members of the vocal department entered in the solo and ensemble contests in the spring.

A few of the choir's other activities this year include Kinder Key caroling, presentations for P.T.A. meetings, performances during school assemblies, and participation in the Christmas choral festival at Central High School.

Activities

The Windows at Eastmoor

Students Ron Boster, Kay Zaima, and Judy Zuck watch Mrs. Wilson as she graphs an equation for her Math Honors IV class.

An experiment in physics has the attention of Bill Cohen, Virginia Schott, and Alan Ross.

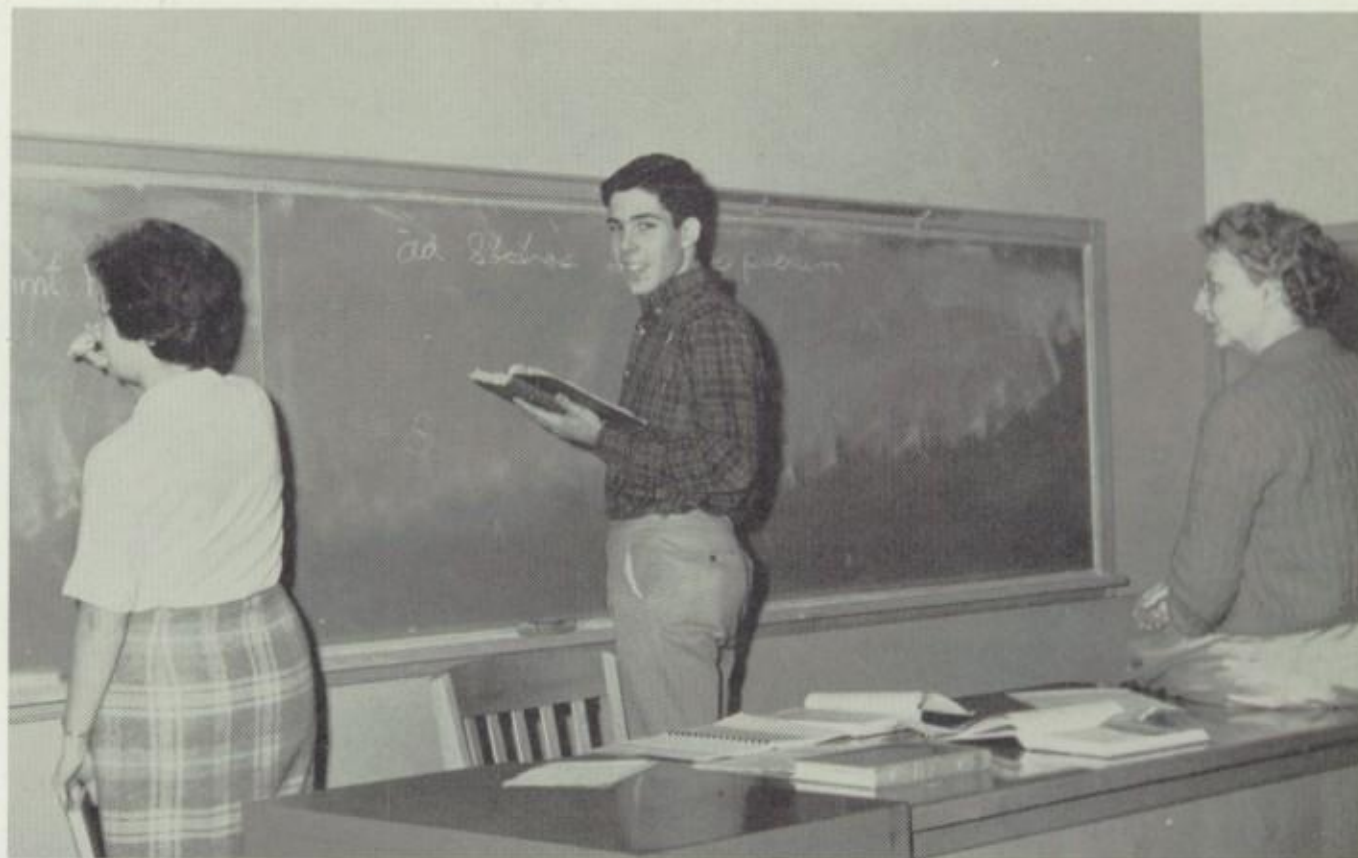

Preparing their equipment for an experiment in chemistry is Mike Soult and Linda Stuart.

Reflect Alert Students

The importance of writing and composition are stressed in English classes.

The major emphasis at Eastmoor is on learning.

A number of our students have distinguished themselves through national honors examinations, through achievement at universities, and through securing college scholarships. A good student at Eastmoor is held in esteem.

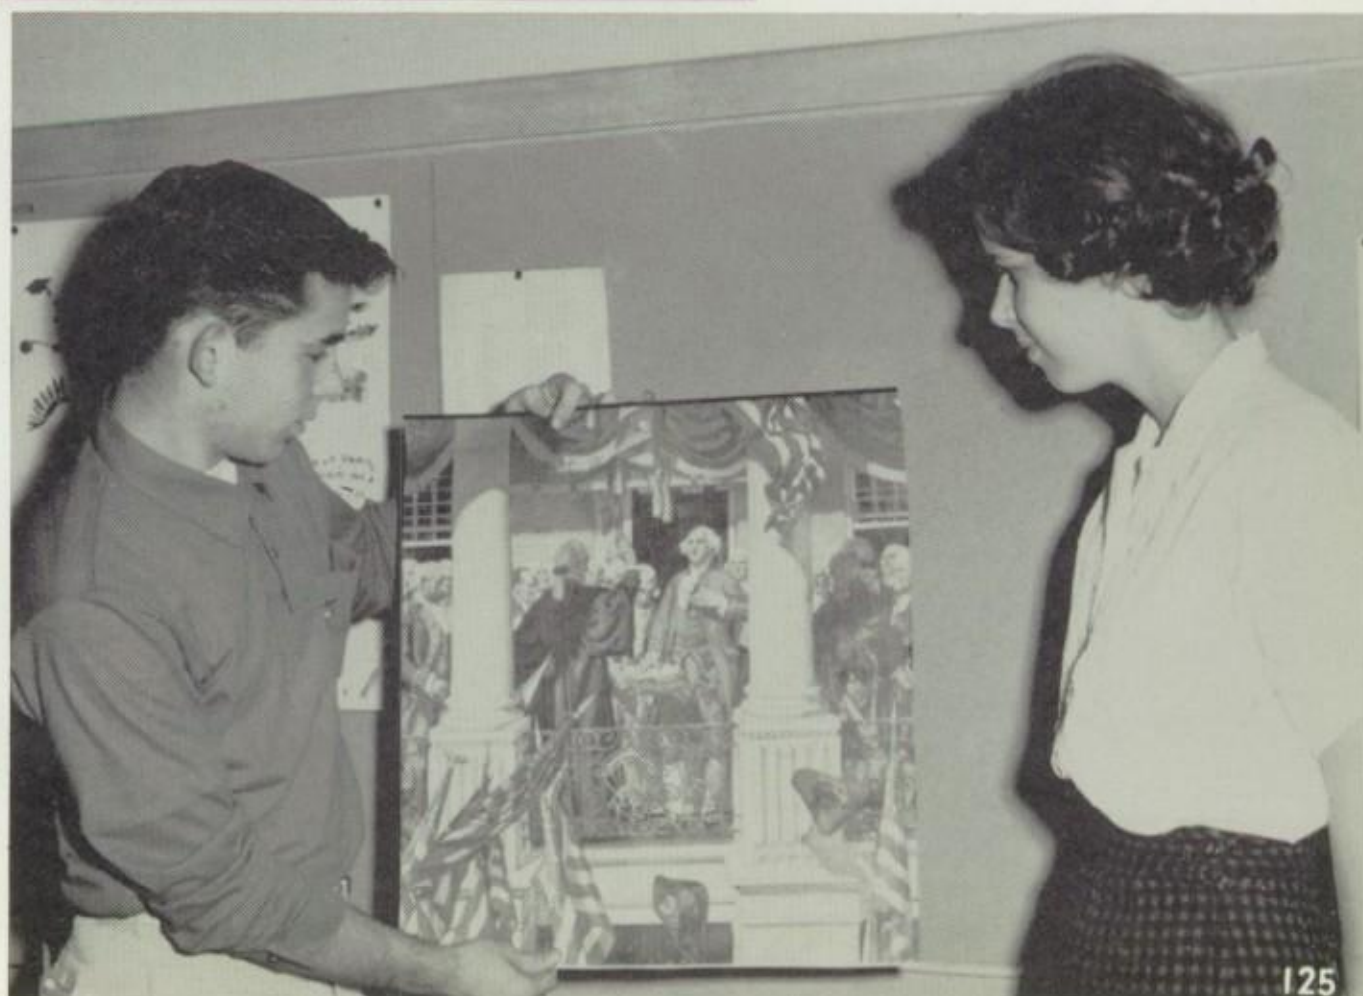

Miss Lincoln looks on as Jackie Taylor and Chuck Becker, members of her fourth year Latin class, do an exercise at the board.

The advanced classroom system in the Columbus Public School System was first introduced at Eastmoor. An example of this accelerated program is Miss Berisford's eleventh grade honors English class.

Jim Carroll and Lynn Balthaser look at a picture of Washington's inauguration, which is included in their studies in American history.

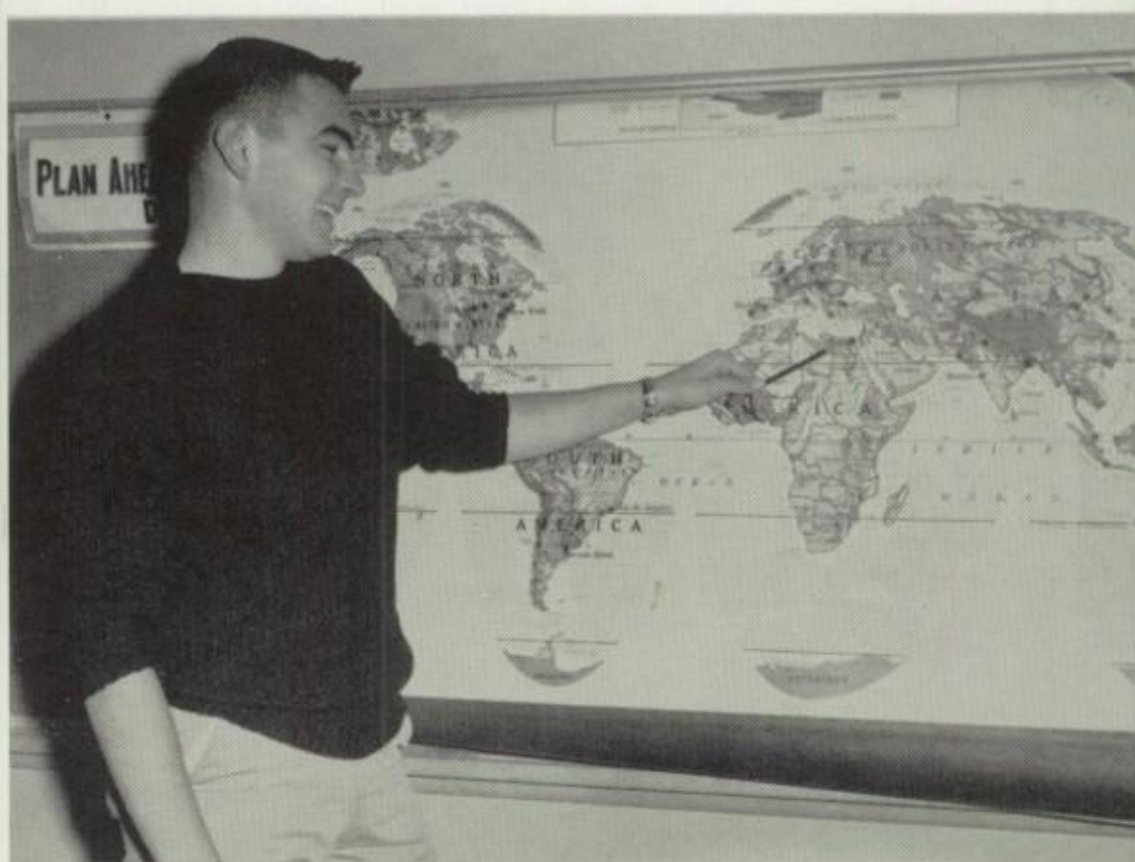

Learning by Doing,

In the dramatics class, John Avic and Ron Steelman read selections for their classmates.

Busy at work in the metal shop is Bob Reece.

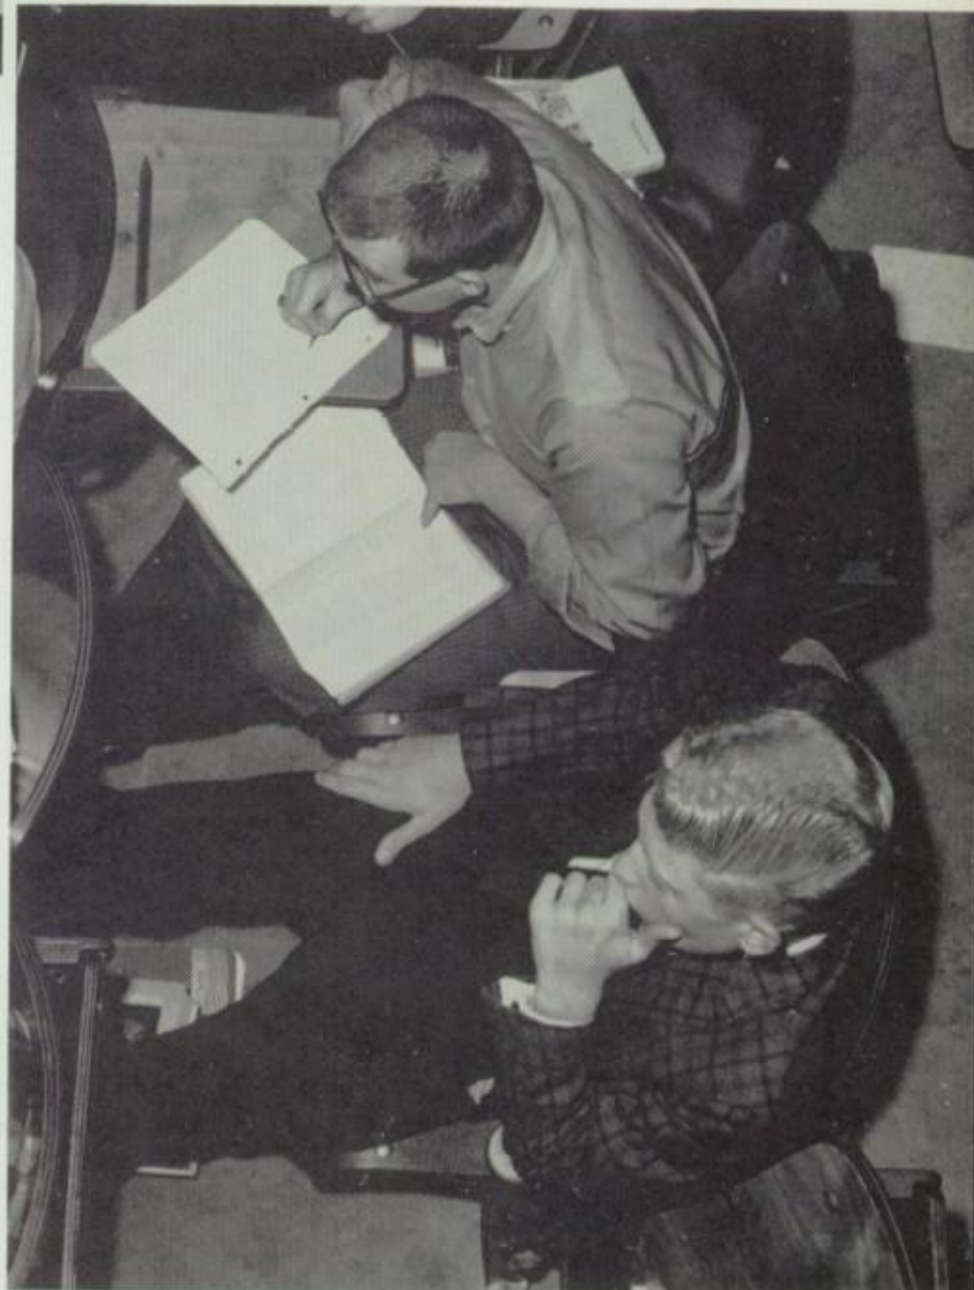

During a discussion in a Problems of Democracy class, Roger Reynolds is asked to point out Cairo, an important African city.

Using Their High Ability

Mr. Morris looks content as Lynn Balthasar finds the right chord in an exercise in music theory. Waiting their turn are Bob Moreen, Beth Thompson, and Karel Kreiselman.

Gary McCoy finds this study hall an opportunity to complete his homework. Tom Klug finds it a time to collect his thoughts.

To Bring Honor to

Carol Peterson, Patty Cope, Hazel Bennett, and Sheila Meyers "pound away" at an exercise in their typing class.

Eastmoor is fortunate to have the latest in language instruction. Rick Dorman and Jane Lewis illustrate how each student has an individual booth which is equipped with a tape recorder, making it possible for him to hear his own voice.

The human body is studied by Konnie Kirkman and Dave Thomas in advanced biology.

Themselves and Their School

Mr. Basich assists Richard Bingaman in a project in wood while Bob Nedblake works on his.

Art majors Tauna Fife, Margaret Sauner, John Armbruster, Bill Snow, Carolyn Meindl, and Sandy Hysell display their clay sculpture work.

Sandy Smith, Miss Gould, and Linda Wilson assist Carolyn Noble in removing a cake from the pan without crumbling.

Students Work in

The art students display their work to add to an enjoyable evening at an Eastmoor play.

Bob Machler, Harold Davis, and Terry Smith are working hard in the wood shop.

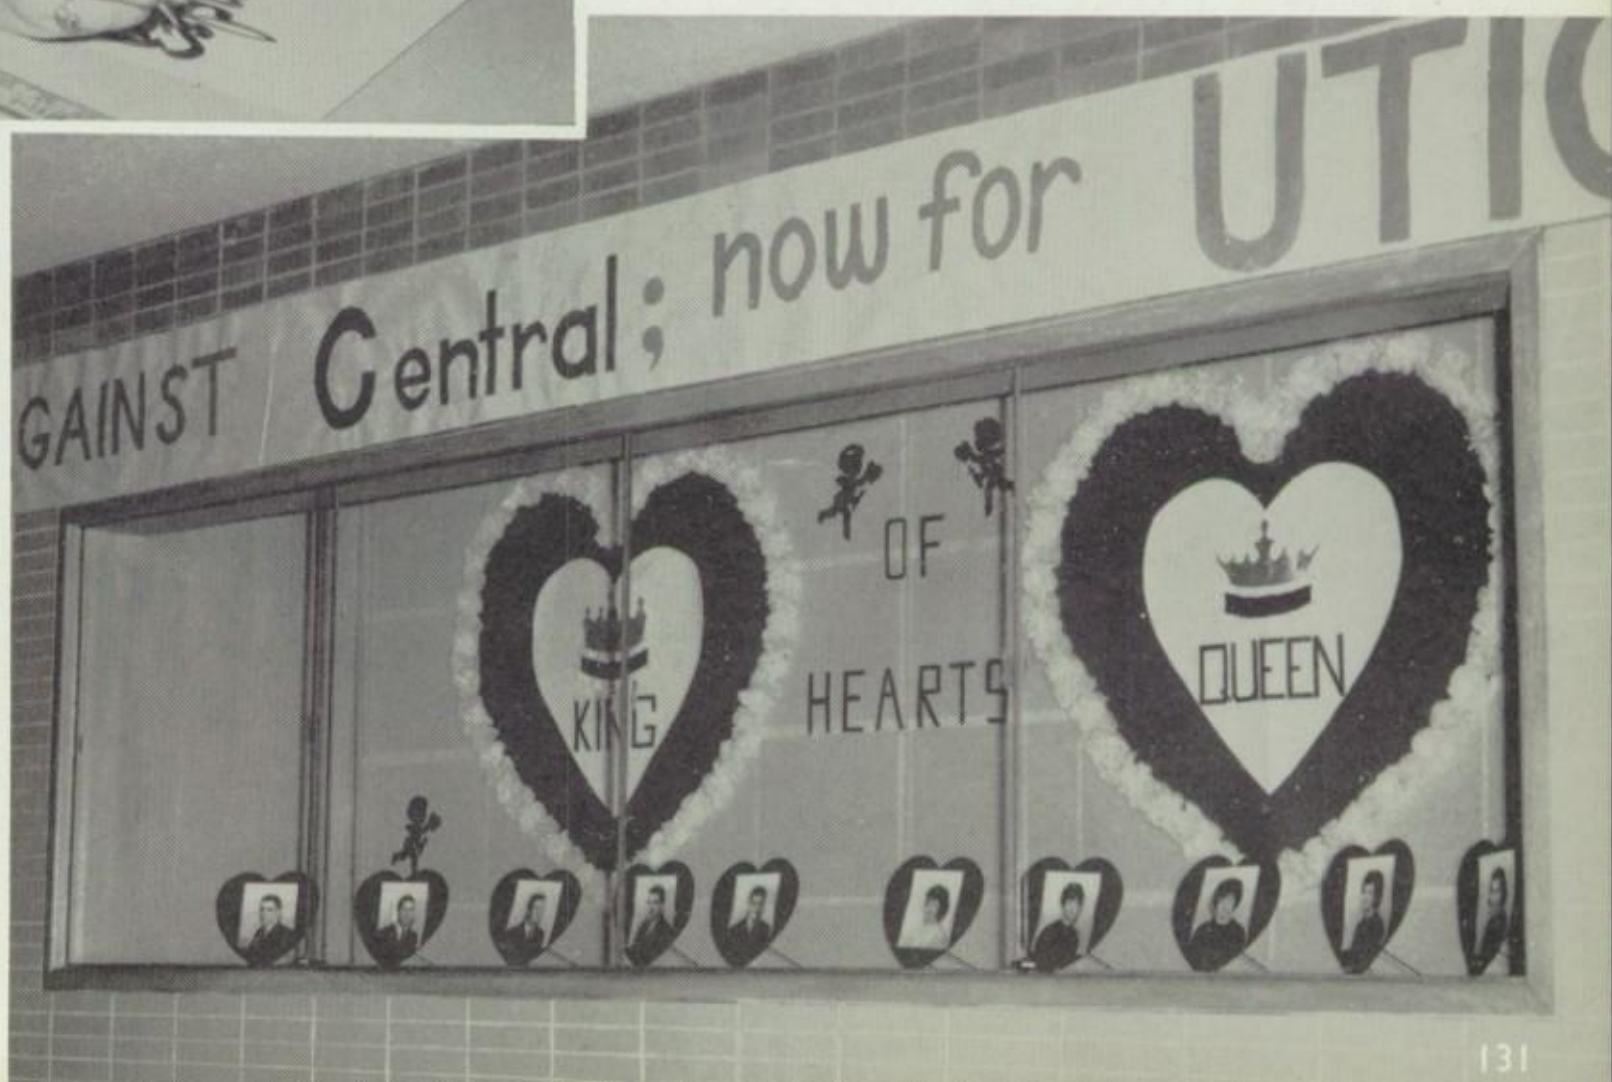

Jim Carrell, Phil Wilson, and Steve Freedman work with the lighting that adds so much effect to the dramatic program at Eastmoor.

The Creative Arts

Trying to finish their clothing projects are Connie Wilson, Terrie Rose, Annette Katz, Linda Stuart, and Mona Hara.

Marilyn Renick displays her artistic talent as she designs a poster for the Mendez Concert.

Students greatly enjoyed the Valentine mood set by the Y-Teen Club.

The Man Who Came

An outstanding cast presented this difficult production which required many people. All contributed to its overwhelming success.

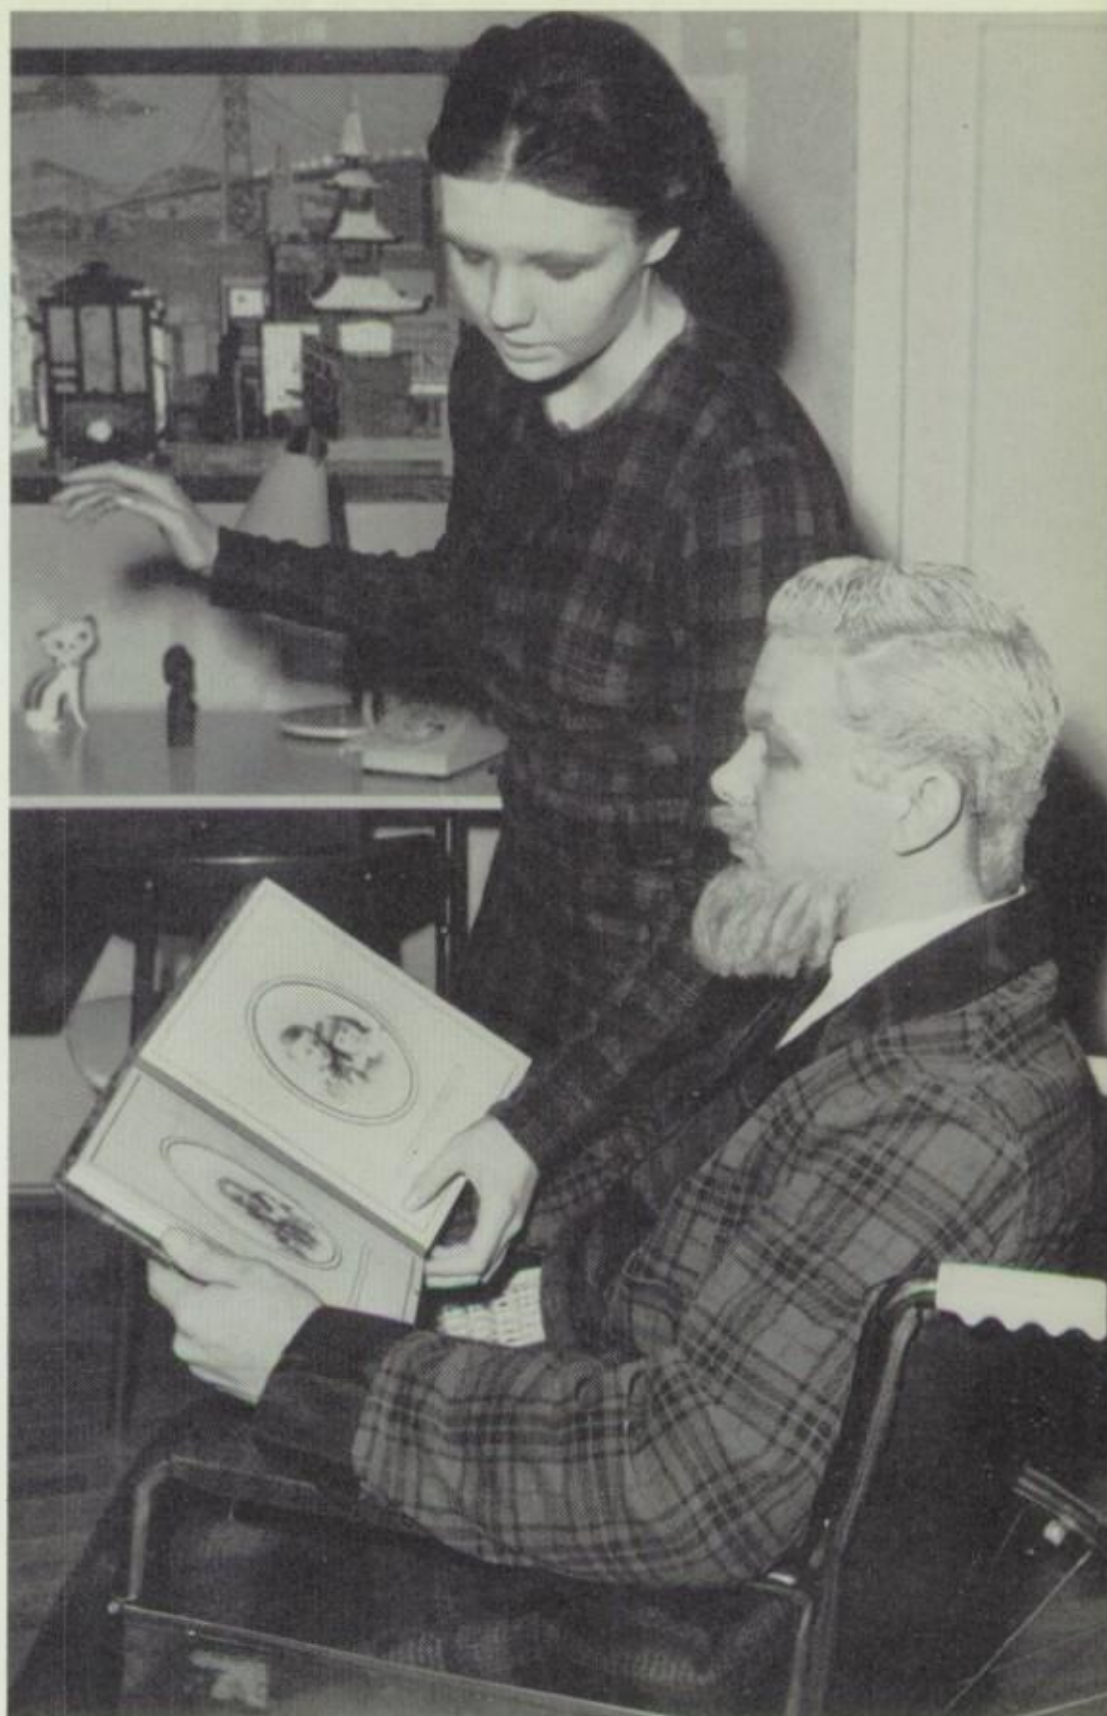

Banjo (Gil Fiertag) tries to eliminate Lorraine Sheldon (Karen Bennett) from the Stanley household by shipping her off in a mummy case.

The Man Who Came to Dinner was another successful production by the Dramatics Department at Eastmoor. In this fine presentation of this famed Broadway hit, Larry Nichols became the loud, boisterous Sheridan Whiteside. Because of an accident on the doorstep of the Stanley home, he and his secretary (Sue Brown) make this home in Ohio their residence for a while.

During his stay, Whiteside alters the Stanley household and all those that associate with him because of his own selfishness.

Both Mr. Nichols and Miss Brown finished their acting days at Eastmoor with this production, but they left a fine memory to all who saw this production.

to Dinner

Harriet Stanley (Betty Becker), the mentally ill sister of Mr. Stanley, shows Whiteside (Larry Nichols) pictures of her youth.

Whiteside could always win friendships by his flattering words. The cook (Virginia Schott) and the butler (Barry Hilton) were among the misled who found him their ideal of a gentleman.

Ella (Bev Finke) was always helping people. One of her most difficult transformations was changing Blake Barton into the Madison Avenue type. Blake (Steve Foster) looks on as Ella shows him she's as "hep" as he. Other customers in his Far Out Coffee House were Sarah Welch, Janice Moltenberry, Connie Rau, Bev Reynolds, and Ira Sutton providing the "beat."

Bells Are

The dentist (Paul Fitzpatrick) composed songs on his airhose. It took a girl like Ella to make him a star.

Who could wish for more than a pretty girl and a song? Here Mary Ann Kimmerle and Lencar Biddle illustrate the reason why Bells Are Ringing was enjoyed by all.

Inspector Barnés (Larry Nichols) accuses Sandor (Dave Armstrong) of operating a bookie ring. To the amazement of Ella, she has been running the business through her answering service. In this scene we find the leads of the Friday night cast. They are Lencar Biddle, Mary Ann Kimmerle, Dave Armstrong, Andi Gorenstein, Larry Nichols and Mary Jo Flowers.

Ringing

Bob Moreen (Jeff) and Bev Finke (Ella) realize that they have met and have fallen in love "Just in Time."

Sandor (Barry Hilton) holds the heart of Ella's spinster cousin—played by Andi Gorenstein.

Junior-Senior Prom

Charlene Upjohn and Brad Hull were among the many happy couples at "Gay Paree."

This scene was repeated many times as the dance floor was always crowded.

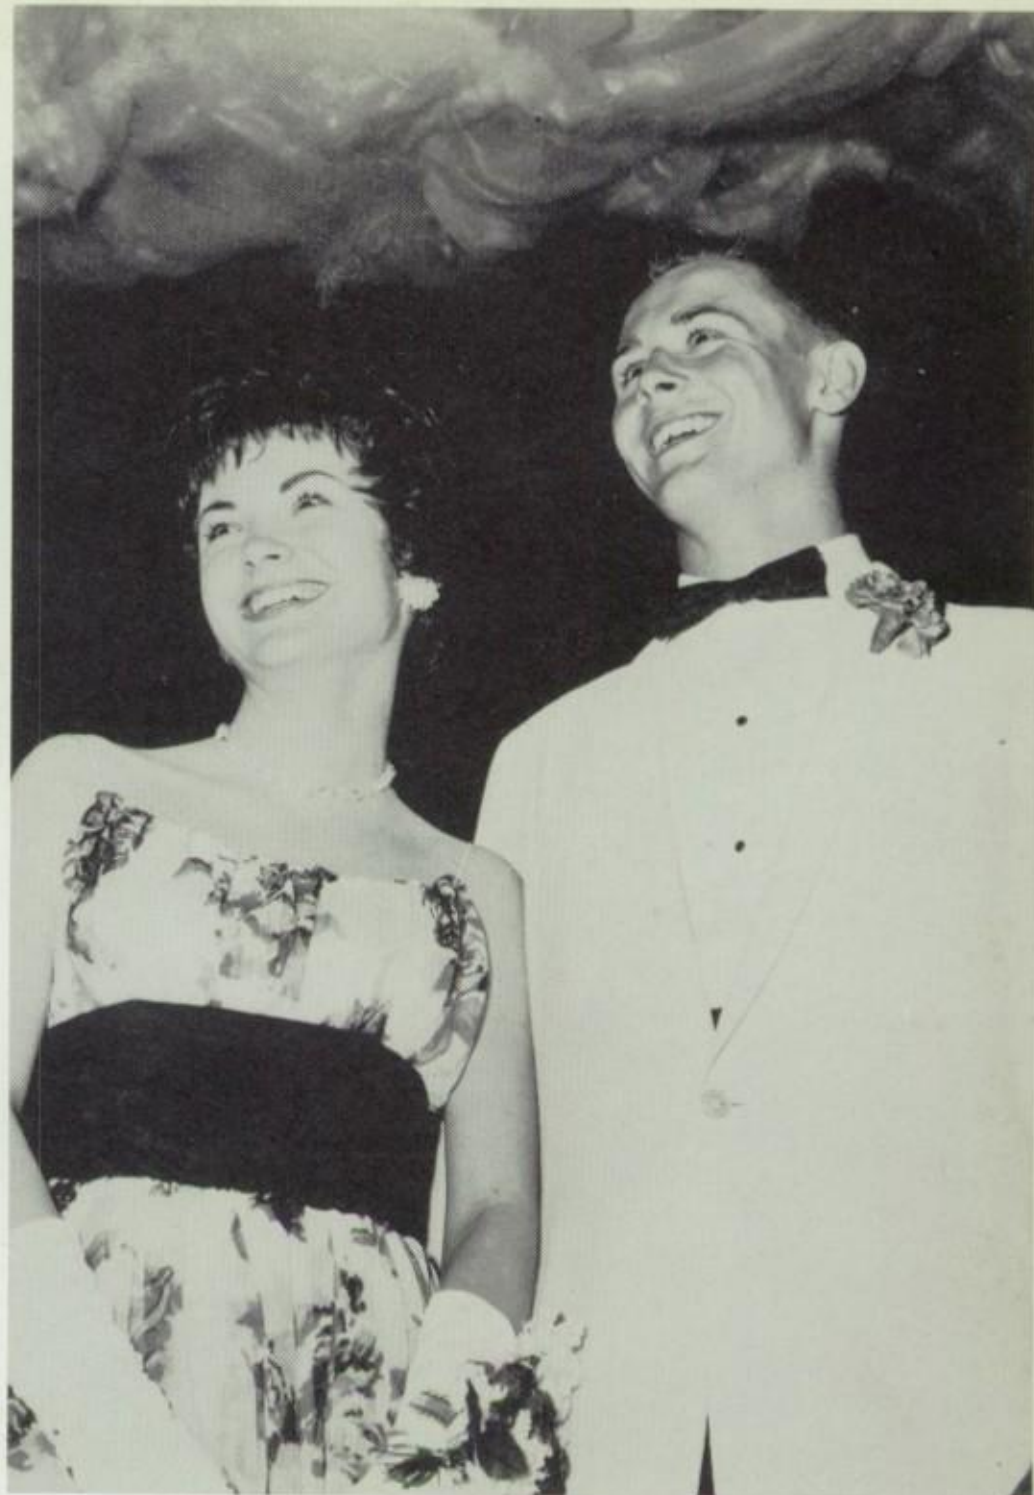

Tim Williams and Mary Jo Flowers relax in the Parisian cafe as they await their refreshments.

"Gay Pareé"

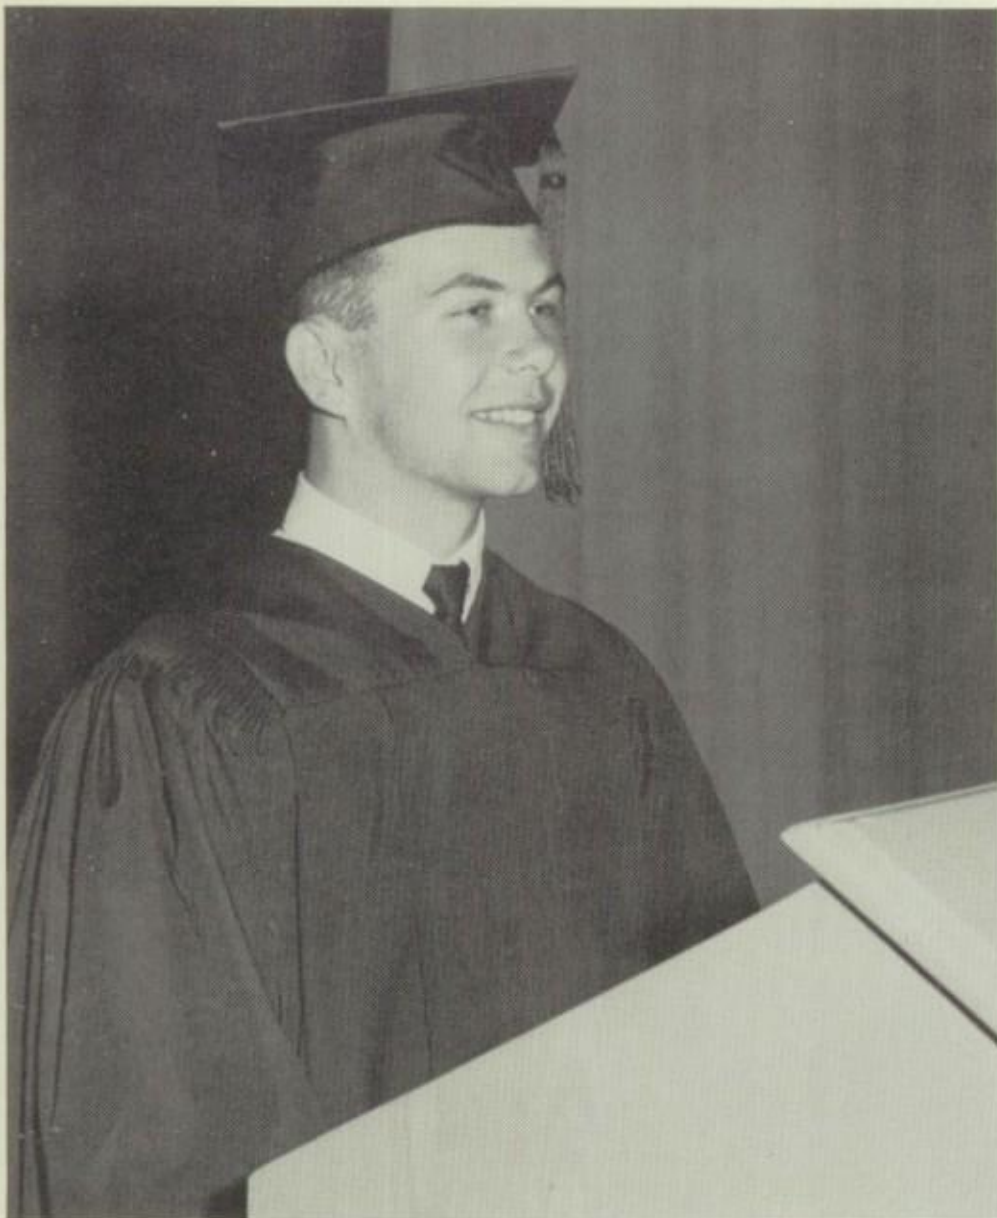

Tim Boyles and Mari Werlin admire the Eiffel Tower at the prom.

The spirit of "Gay Pareé" seems to have entranced Sharon Pierce and Larry Gornall.

Couples danced to the music of the Jerry Johnson Orchestra.

Senior High Graduation

Two hundred and forty diplomas were awarded on June 6, 1961, at the Senior High graduation. Participating in the ceremonies as student speakers were Susan Brown and Larry Nichols. Dr. Irvin F. Young, Assistant Superintendent in charge of Personnel, gave a presentation to the class and Mr. Frank S. Williams, a member of the Board of Education, awarded the diplomas to the graduates.

Marcia Topcik's mother seems to be very proud of her graduate.

Bobbie Kall and Carol Rush smile proudly as their final picture is taken in their caps and gowns.

Graduations

After receiving her diploma, Rita Kahn is about to take a refreshing glass of punch.

Junior High Graduation

Presenting diplomas to one hundred and sixty-one junior high graduates on June 7, 1961, was Mr. F. T. Rudy, Assistant Superintendent of Business Affairs. Student speakers participating in the ceremonies were Linda Russ and Alan Sterling.

Rita Rankin, Karen Beatty, and Betty Lou Smith are on the steps to a higher education.

Crossing the stage to receive her diploma is Judy Pettorini, as she leaves her junior high school days behind her.

During the half-time activities of the homecoming game, the queen and her court were announced to the crowd. Surrounding the queen were the members of the court and their escorts. They are from left to right: Renee Barker, Tom Reich, Barbara Dearth, Pat Irwin, her majesty Marcia Davis, Dick Oser, Pam Smyser, Jim Wacker, Linda Stuart, and Allan Ross.

Homecoming

The stadium roared with the enthusiasm of the overflow crowd.

The queen and her court pose as they were presented during the intermission of the homecoming dance, "Autumn Aura." Finding this an occasion that they will always remember are Renee Barker, Barbara Dearth, Marcia Davis, Pam Smyser, and Linda Stuart.

Highlights

"Autumn Aura" seems to have caught these couples in its spell.

Queen Marcia looked radiant as she graced her throne and reigned over the dance.

"Mother took Uncle Elwood to the sanitarium. We just couldn't stand Harvey any more, judge (Ron Steelman)" whines Myrtle Mae Simmons (Carol Levy).

The office of Chumley's Rest Home.

"Oh, can you really make Elwood well, Dr. Chumley (Barry Hilton)?" asks Veta (Virginia Schott).

"I've had all that I can take, Elwood (Lencar Biddle), and I won't put up with that rabbit any more."

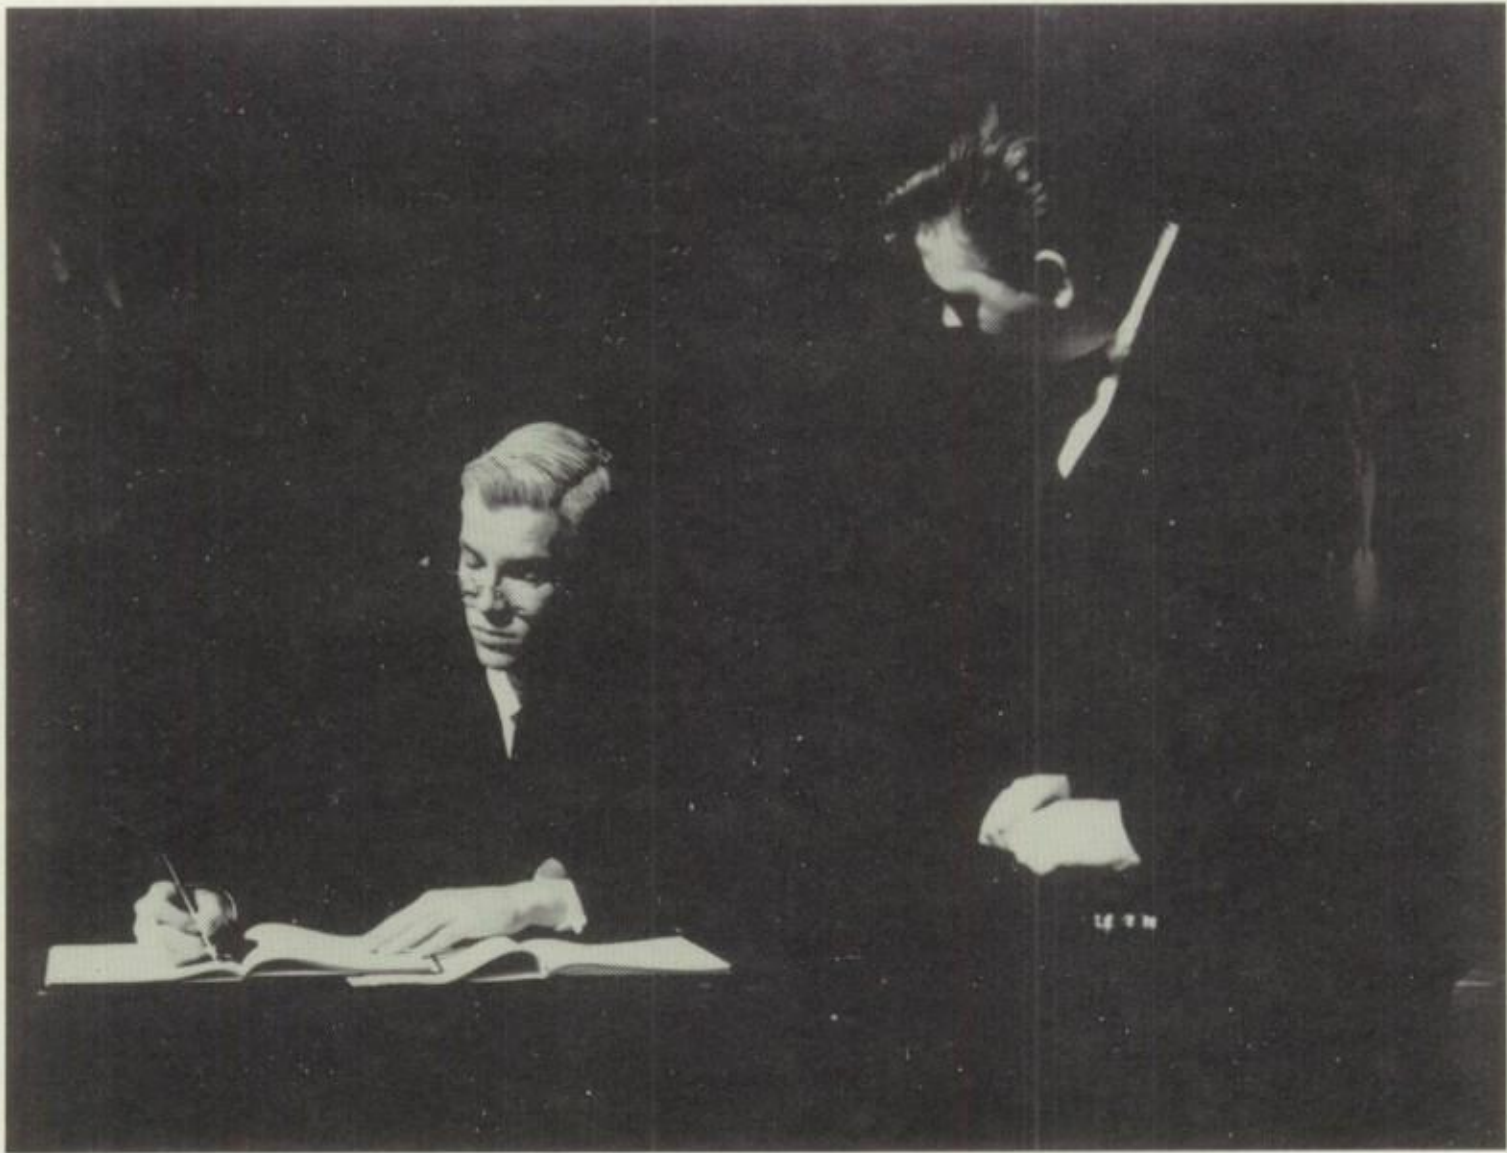

Elwood does some reminiscing of the past with Nurse Kelly (Julia Walls) while Dr. Sanderson (John Avic), Mrs. Chumley (Anita Milnor), and taxi cab driver (Rick Dorman) looks stunned.

The home of Elwood P. Dowd (Lencar Biddle) and his sister Veta Louise Semmons (Virginia Schott).

Yuletide Season

Charity worker, Ronald Steelman, fails to convince the cold and calculating Scrooge, (Lencar Biddle) that Christmas is not "Humbug."

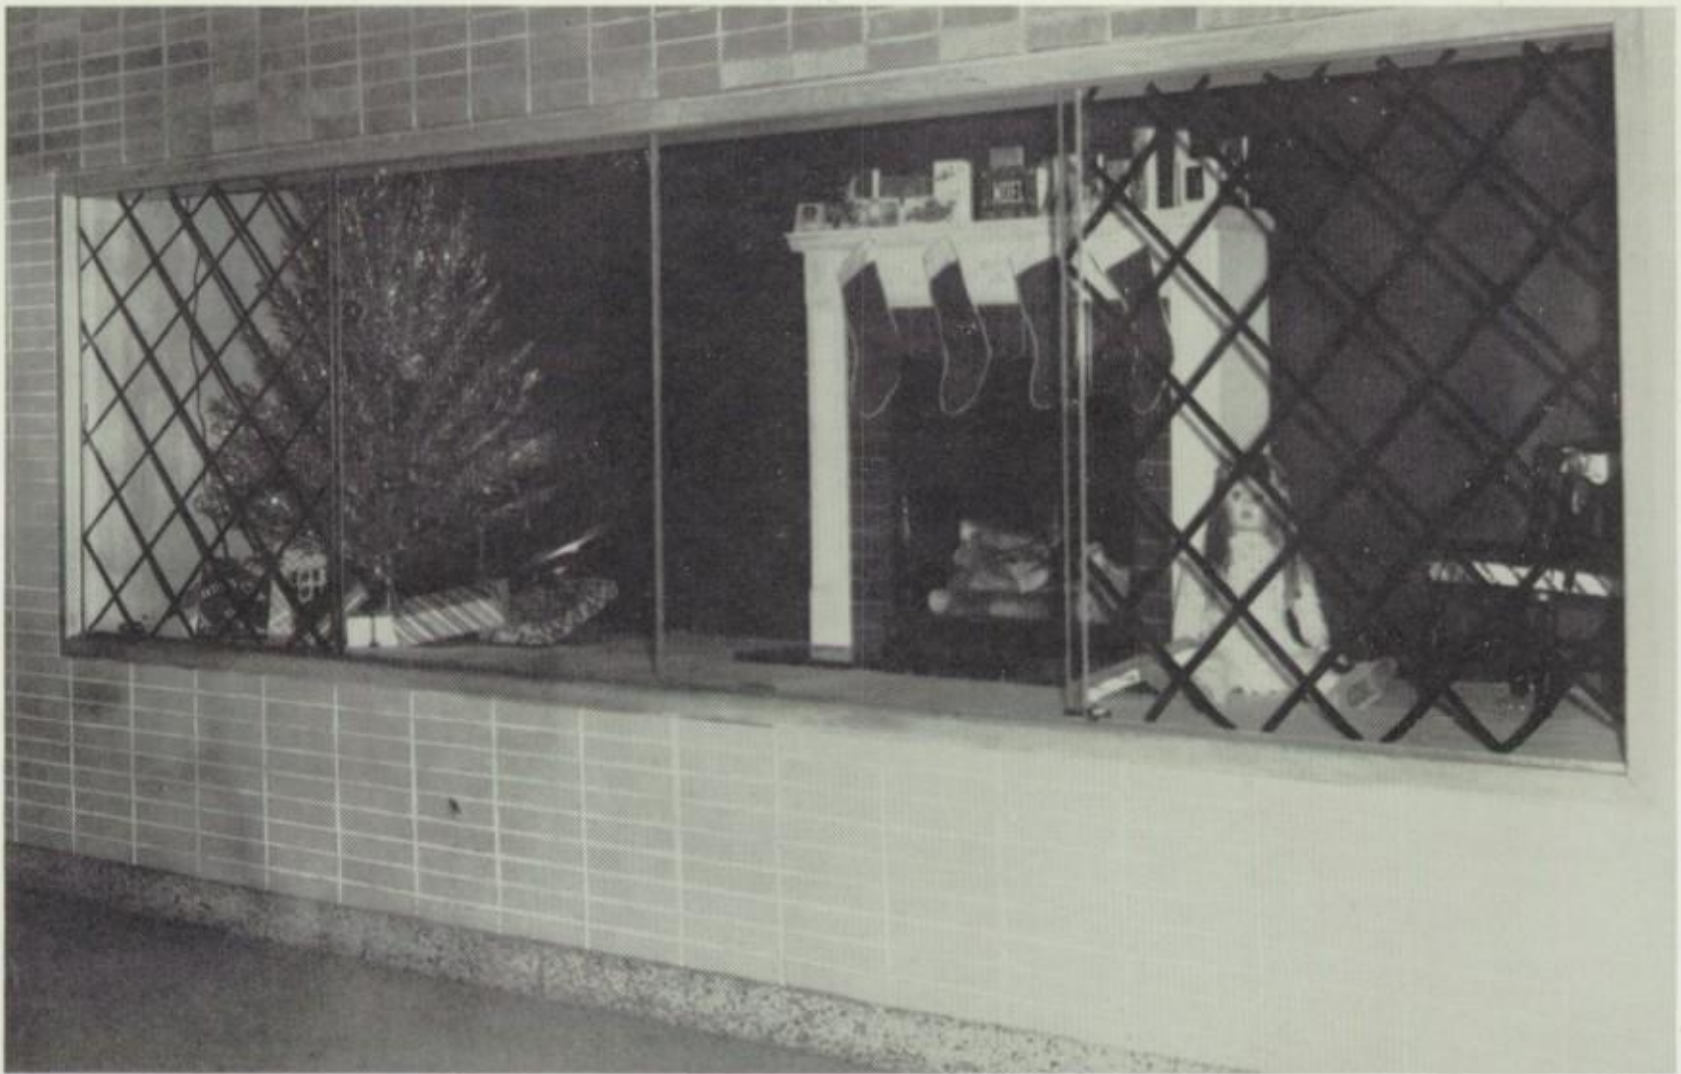

Bob Feathers and Ginny Marsh do whatever they can to keep the school decorations neat and beautiful.

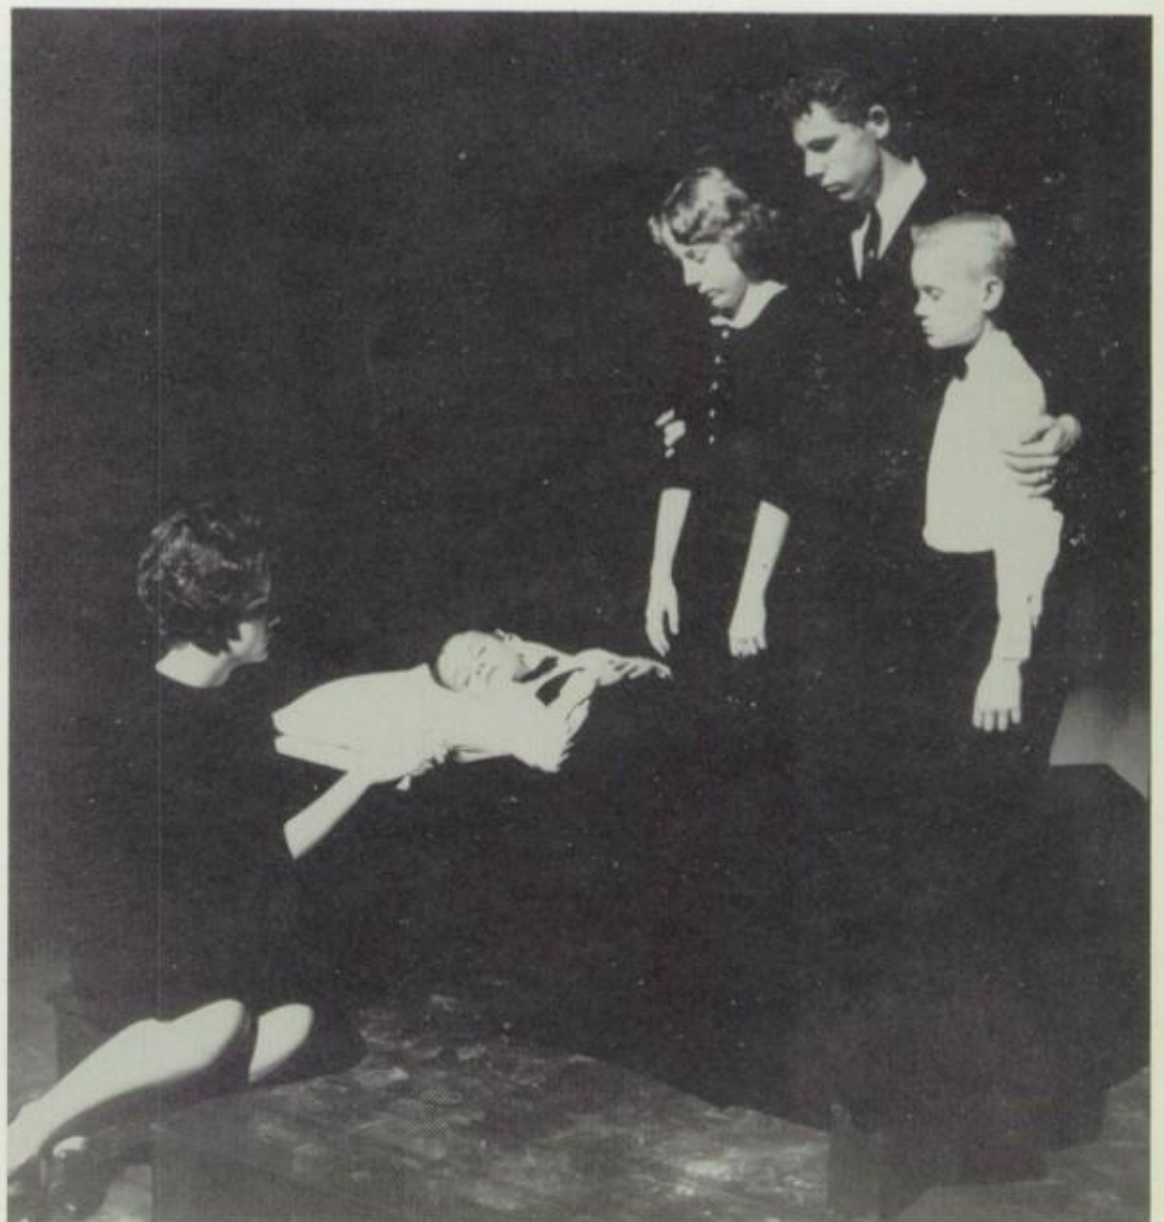

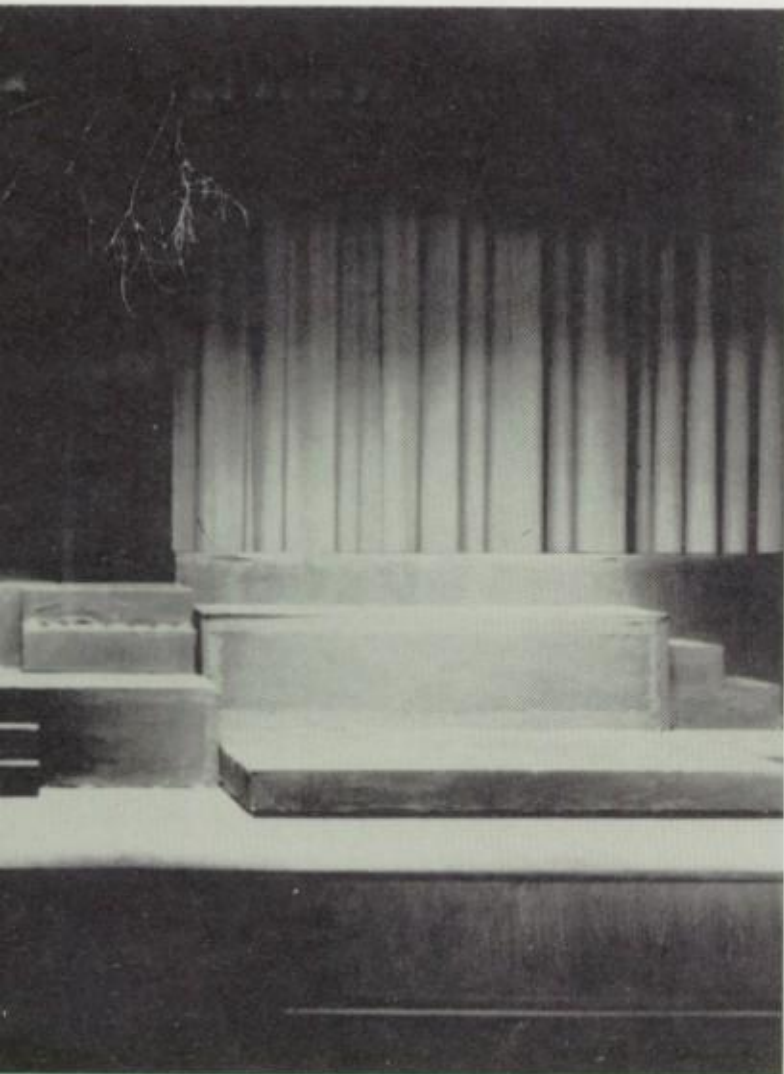

This simple stage setting was the scene of a modern and inspiring version of the classic, "Christmas Carol."

at Eastmoor High

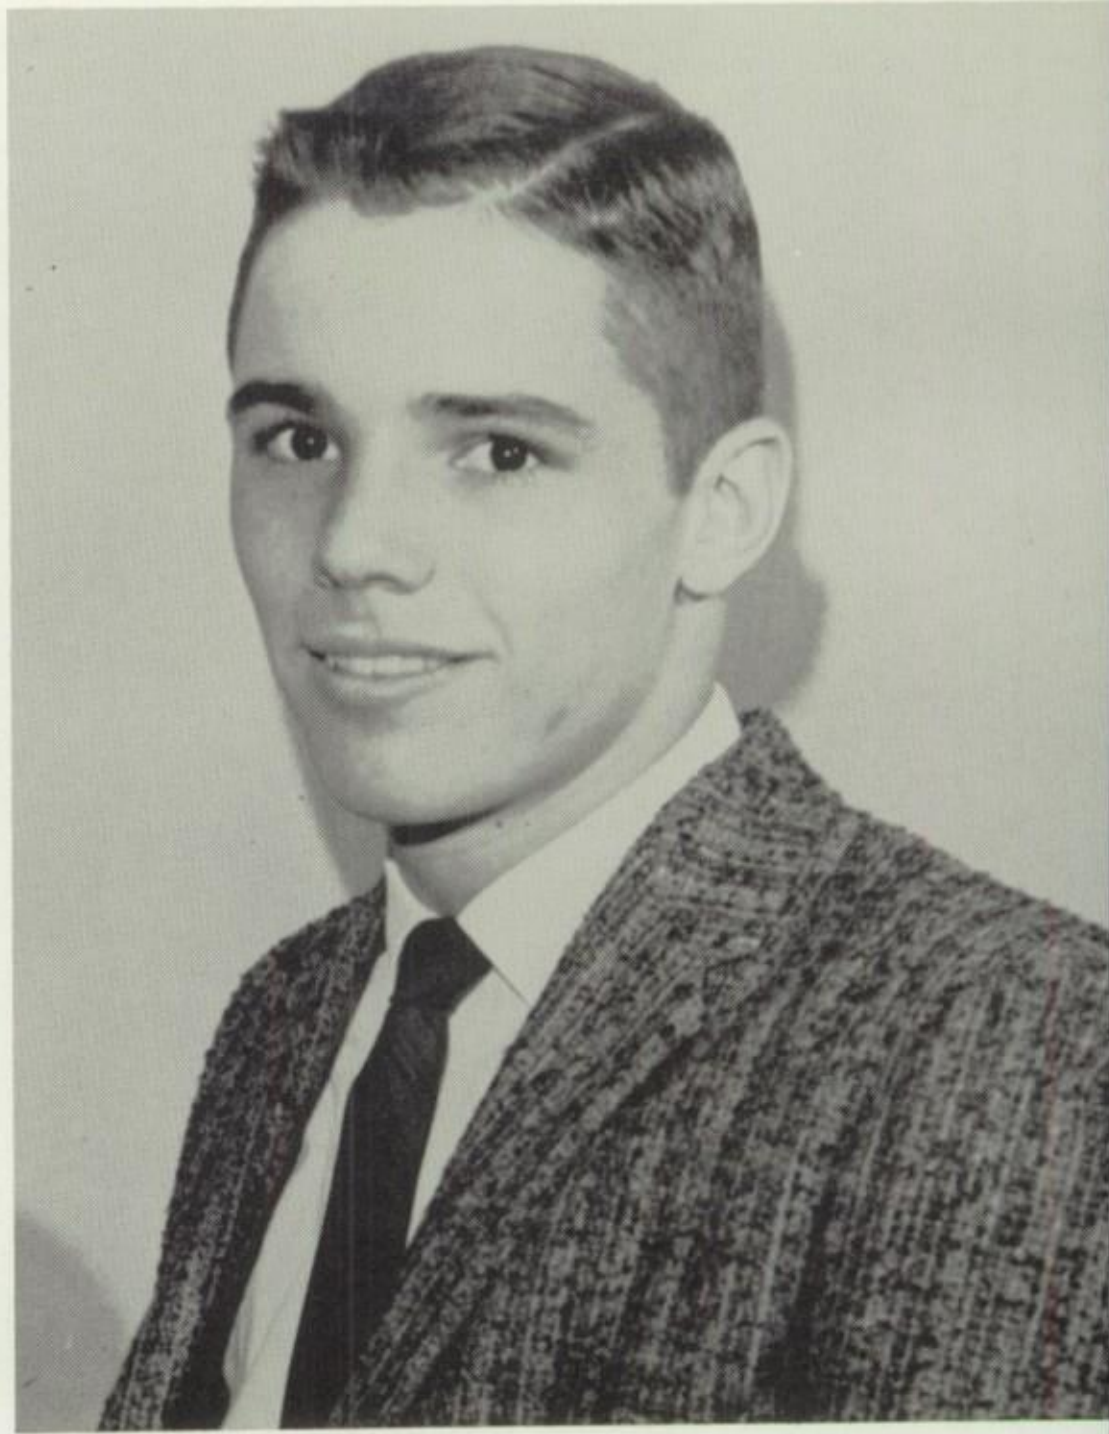

The entire student body enjoyed the Christmas showcase planned and assembled by Student Council.

It is a sad moment in the Cratchit home as the family, played by Wynne Justice, Karen Hutchins, John Avic, and Larry Dailey, watch Tiny Tim, (Peter Seaman), as he lies in his sick bed on the verge of death.

Bob Lewis set a new Eastmoor cross country record in the state meet. His time of 10:11 retired the old record of 10:29 set by Homer McKnight in 1959.

Cross Country

Cross country is one of the lesser known sports at Eastmoor. It takes place in the fall and consists of racing two miles over hilly areas, such as a golf course or park. This year's team improved tremendously as the season progressed and finished a surprising third in the city meet and tied for fifth in the district. Bob Lewis and Don Wray won medals in these meets.

Pausing long enough to have their pictures taken at one of our football games are our varsity cheerleaders Julia Walls, Bobbie Shaw, Connie Wilson, Linda Stuart, and Sarah Welch.

They've Got Great Team

Spurring the Warriors on to another victory are Connie Wilson, Linda Stuart, Bobbie Shaw, Julia Walls, and Sarah Welch.

The combined cheerleading squads rest at the half time with Eddie Fisher of the Dispatch.

The Spirit That a Needs

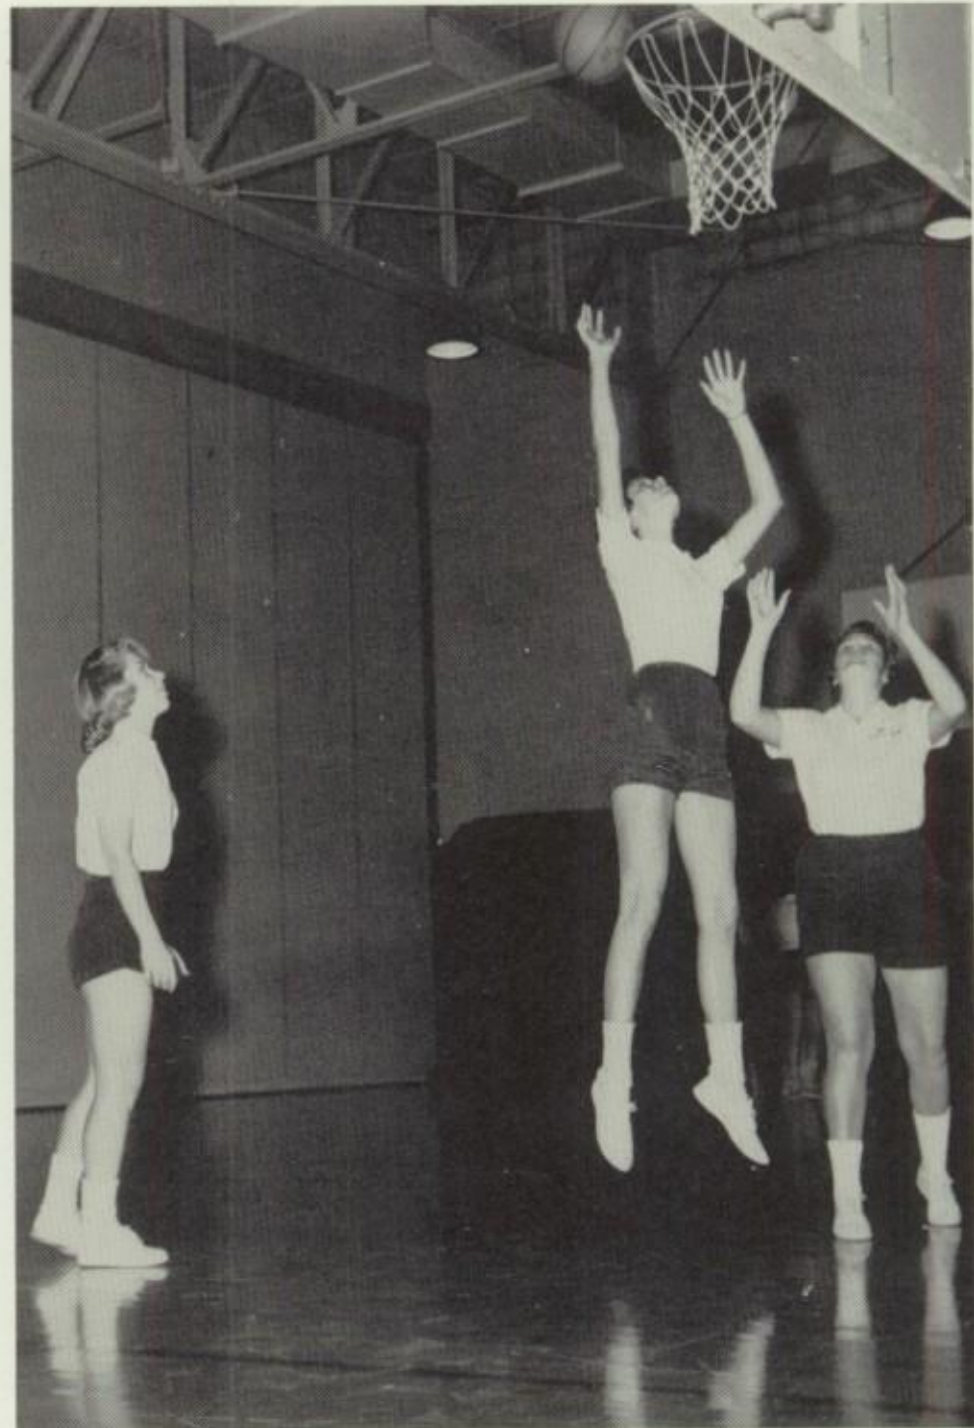

Full of pep are our junior high cheerleaders. They are Diana Baxter, Dale Reynolds, Suzanne Jackson, Carol Armstrong, Linda Sanders, and Barbara Snyder.

Girls' Sports Promote

Miss Gurney and Candy Stockwell demonstrate a headstand to Carol Andre and Evon Roddey.

Bonnie Peart and Dee Pilkington boost the ball into the net as Cerie Schwartz looks on.

Bobbie Edelstein and Diane Ferguson assist their teammates in doing sit-ups for the Physical Fitness Program.

Fun and Competition

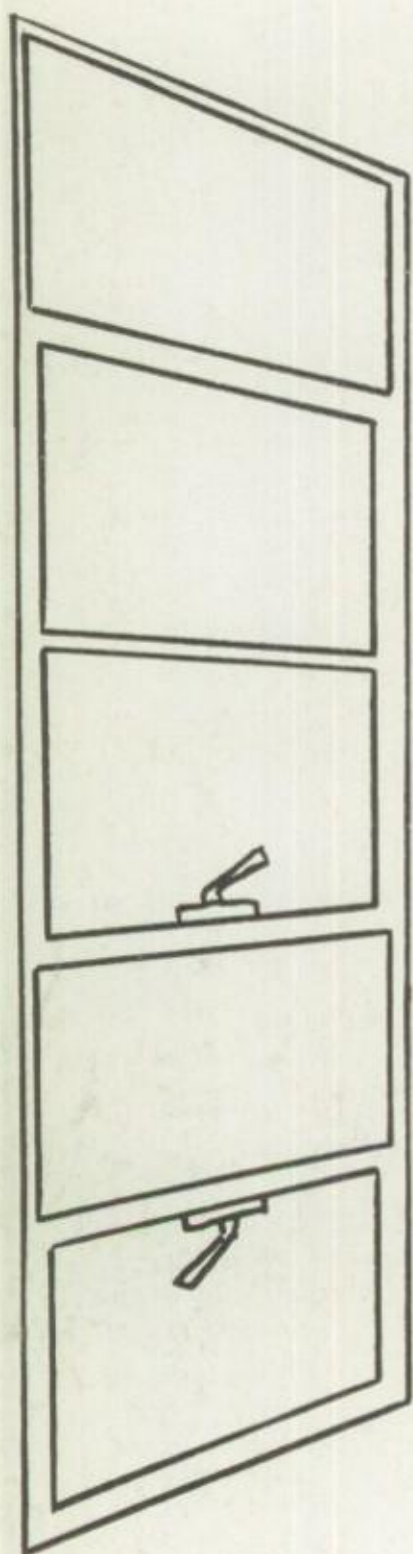

Miss Gurney, one of our physical education instructors, demonstrates how to serve a volleyball to her class.

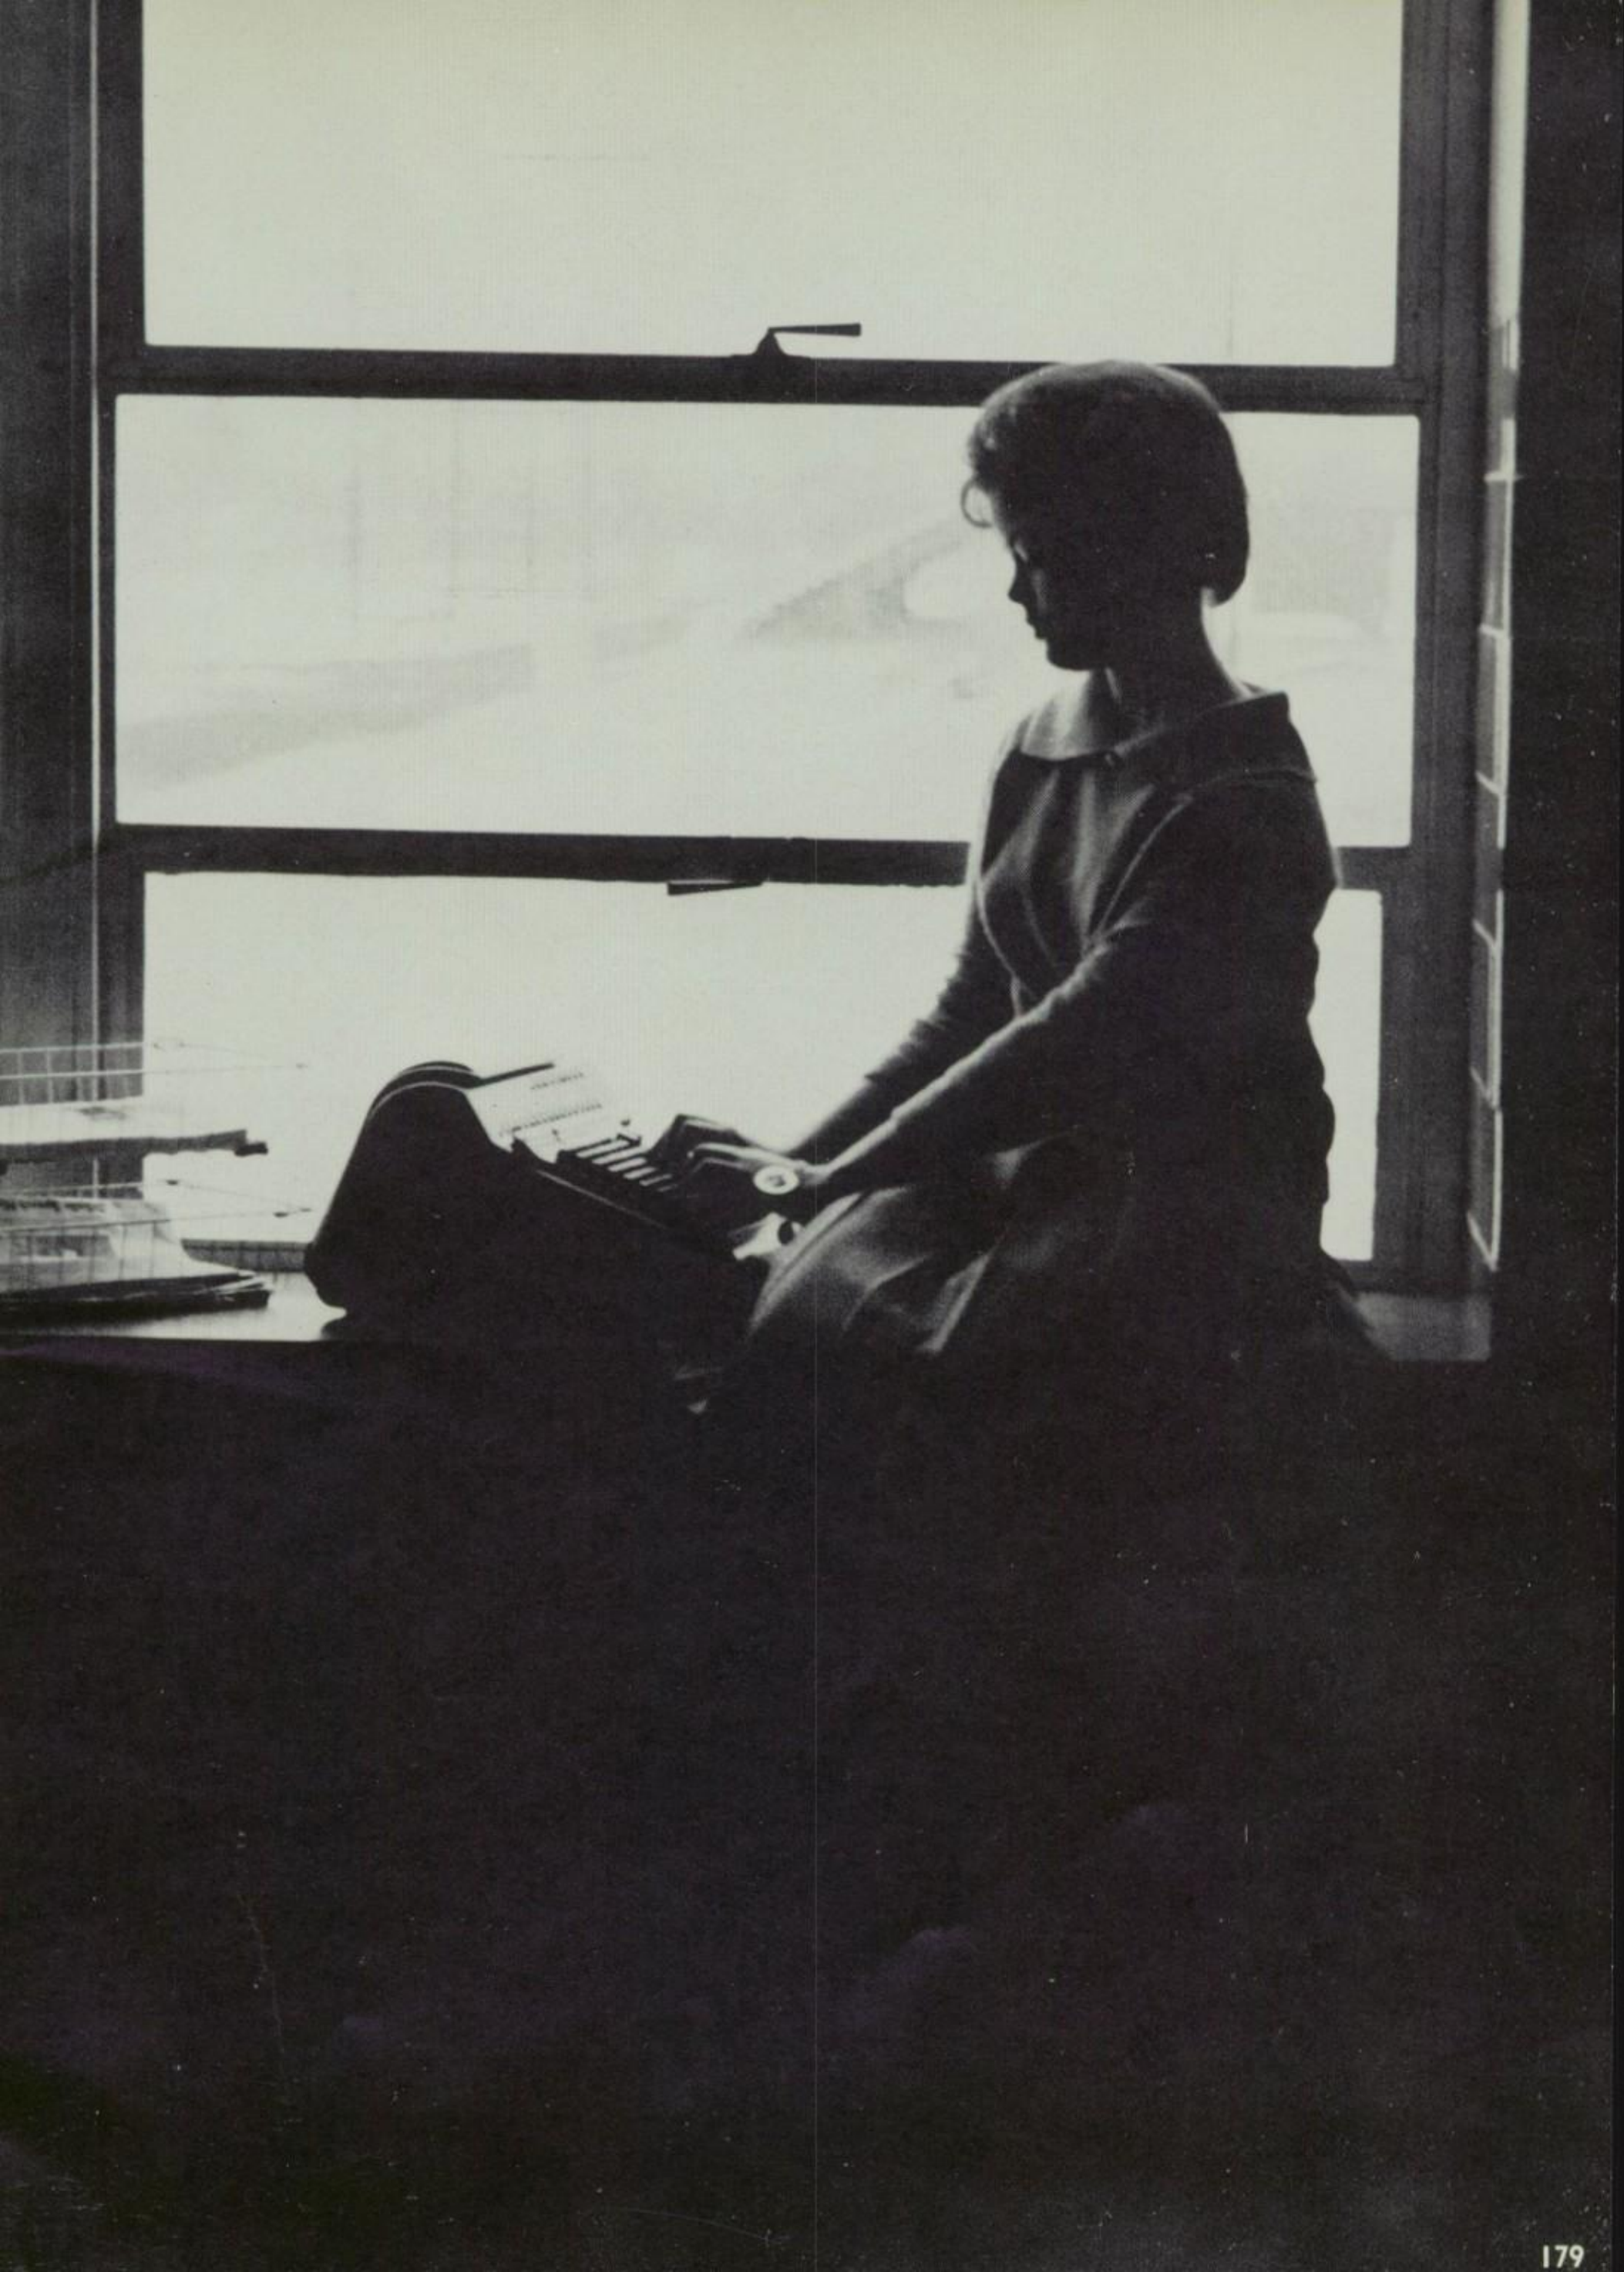

Gail Springer jumps high to get the volleyball over the net.

An eleventh grade physical education class warms up with toe-touching exercises.

Builders and Developers

In 1899, the first car equipped with Timken® bearings took to the road. Today, every American make of car but one rolls on Timken tapered roller bearings.

Everything's changed
but the name on the bearings

And there's a new kind of bearing in today's power cars. It's the latest step in Timken bearing engineers' drawing board to drawing board partnership with the auto industry. It's a smaller, lighter bearing to cut unsprung weight. A more uniformly precise bearing to cut warranty costs. Capacity packed to take the heavier loads of today's luxury cars. These bearings are made of the finest bearing quality alloy steel available. And we know steel. We've been in the steel business for 45 years. In fact, we've developed and manufactured steel for the transmissions and other vital parts in many of today's cars. Furthermore, Timken removable rock bits are helping to build America's highways for America's automobiles.

Timken Company employees have an important part in the success and progress of the automotive industry. In keeping millions of cars, trucks and buses rolling trouble-free, in giving you economical, carefree driving, mile after mile after mile.
